

Nixon, Rocky Smile Again

Pair Meet Cordially At British Exhibition

NEW YORK (AP)—Politically feuding Vice President Nixon and Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller met cordially at a British trade exhibition today and smilingly shook hands.

The personal encounter was the first since their recent exchange of statements concerning the future of the Republican party and the nation.

Rocky Pun Aimed At Ike, Too

President's Aides Say There's No Question About It

WASHINGTON (AP)—In hitting at Vice President Richard M. Nixon, New York's Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller struck perhaps even more resoundingly at President Eisenhower.

Some of the President's aides reportedly feel there is no question about it. However, most of this group is said to believe that Rockefeller's intent was to train his main fire on Nixon in a long shot effort to keep him from winning the Republican presidential nomination.

Rockefeller's Wednesday statement called on Nixon to set forth his views on a number of matters in advance of the Republican nominating convention.

But in underscoring his own announced availability for a draft, Rockefeller swatted hard at Eisenhower administration policies, although Rockefeller once was on Eisenhower's White House staff and later served as Under Secretary of Health, Education and Welfare.

The New York governor said some nice things about Eisenhower in general terms, but then proceeded to let fly in detail at administration policies. And Rockefeller well knows that as President, Eisenhower is responsible for those policies.

Thurston B. Morton, the Republican national chairman, was asked Thursday whether he thought Rockefeller's statement added up to an attack on the Eisenhower record. Morton replied he did think so.

Chinese Are Homeless In Typhoon Aftermath

HONG KONG (AP)—At least 18,000 Chinese were homeless today in the aftermath of Typhoon Mary, which smashed into this British crown colony with winds of up to 118 miles per hour.

A government spokesman said 30 bodies had been recovered and at least 34 others were missing. The typhoon roared on up the China Coast, but as yet there was no word from the Communists of its effects on the Red-ruled mainland.

Press Time Bulletins

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (AP)—Argentina formally notified the U.N. Security Council today of its plans to seek U.N. action if Israel fails to return Adolf Eichmann. For the present, however, the Argentines did not request a council meeting.

JEFFERSON CITY (AP)—A special legislative subcommittee concluded today the Highway Department's "sales tax deduction rule" was a legal attempt "to equalize the cost of materials purchased by contractors within and without the state."

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Senate Appropriations Committee called today for speedy development of a spy-in-the-sky satellite which one member said could gather "accurate and timely information about Soviet military installations."

WASHINGTON (AP)—Kansas will have $36,094,000 and Missouri $75,660,000 in federal highway aid money made available during the 1961 fiscal year which starts July 1.

A MOTHER'S CHILDREN RETURNED—Mrs. Audrey Whetzel of La Puente, Calif., who is losing her sight, tearfully embraces the daughters she thought her eyes might not see again, at Los Angeles International Airport. The girls are Vickie, left, 10, and Patricia, 9. They went with her to her native Coventry, England, early last year when she returned there hoping for a cure for her progressive blindness. She returned to California in January of this year, but did not have money to bring the girls who stayed with relatives. An American television program (Queen for a Day) paid for the girls' flight to their mother. (AP Wirephoto)

Airplane Industry Is Next

Say Missile Strike Expected to Spread

SAN DIEGO, Calif. (AP)—Union spokesmen say the strike against Convair's far-flung missile facilities will spread Monday to the firm's big airplane and missile-making plants here.

The move would idle 20,300 workers building Atlas intercontinental missiles, F106 interceptors and speedy new Convair 660 and 880 jet transports.

The walkout is slated as a one-day affair, called by the 6,000-member Engineers and Architects Assn.

Officials of the International Assn. of Machinists Thursday night said it would order IAM workers not to cross the EAA's picket line.

The move came as talks between the firm and the two unions remained deadlocked.

On another front in Southern California's troubled plane-and-missile scene, there was one hopeful note: Lockheed Aircraft Corp.'s missiles and space division was expected to make an announcement—possibly a new contract offer—at a meeting in San Francisco today with another IAM union.

Involved are 10,500 employees at Lockheed facilities in Van Nuys, Sunnyvale, Santa Cruz and Vandenberg Air Force Base, Calif., and at Holloman AFB, N.M., and in Hawaii.

Too Much Talk

Evidently we have talked too much about the cool nights and nice days, temperature wise.

Partly cloudy tonight and Saturday; warmer tonight; low Friday night 67; high Saturday 88.

The temperature Friday was 72 at 7 a.m. and 86 at 1 p.m. Low Thursday night was 64.

The temperature one year ago today was, high 94; low 73; two years ago, high 85; low 63; three years ago, high 83; low 67.

Japanese Besiege Hagerty Car; Protesting Ike's Visit

Danger To Ike, Evident

Students Show Danger Facing The President

TOKYO (AP)—Fanatical university students showed today they could put President Eisenhower in physical danger if he visits here next week. The question is: Do they want to commit violence on him?

Screaming and shouting anti-American slogans, thousands of students and left-wing unionists besieged White House press secretary James C. Hagerty in a car outside the airport as he tried to drive into town.

They beat and battered the car—and obviously could have done worse if they had wanted to—as Hagerty sat inside with U. S. Ambassador Douglas MacArthur II and White House appointment secretary Thomas E. Stephens.

The students, members of the ultra left-wing organization Zengakuren, had advertised their airport demonstration as a "dry run," to show Hagerty what they could do when the President comes and to convince him to call off the trip.

Admittedly, there will be more police—acting a lot more aggressively—at the airport and along his route into Tokyo on June 19 when Eisenhower arrives than there were when Hagerty and Stephens arrived.

But no number of policemen can keep thousands of determined students—not without plenty of bloodshed, anyhow—from blocking the streets.

There is a body of opinion among Japanese, even those opposed to the visit, that there won't be any violence against the American President.

They reason:

1. That the President will be traveling in a car with the Emperor and that this is his best protection. However, Zengakuren spokesmen have in the past made clear their disdain for the Emperor and his system.
2. The public reaction against an act of violence would be so great that Zengakuren would be destroyed.
3. That today's demonstration will arouse Japanese public opinion and strengthen the hand of the hitherto tolerant police, who have obviously felt they didn't have a public mandate to reply to force with force.

Symington to Attend

KANSAS CITY (AP)—Sen. Stuart Symington (D-Mo.) will attend a Symington-for-President dinner at Kansas City June 23. The main speaker will be former President Harry S. Truman.

Stage Blackout to End

NEW YORK (AP)—Actors and producers ratified a four-year contract Thursday night to end the week-long Broadway stage blackout.

Plans were made to reopen 19 of the 22 shows by Monday night.

The League of New York Theaters, representing the producers, unanimously agreed to accept a peace formula hammered out earlier Thursday under the direction of City Labor Commissioner Harold A. Felix. Members of Actors Equity Assn., by secret ballot, voted 773-54 for acceptance.

David Merrick, one of the producers, said he did not think the settlement would force a raise in ticket prices. "With careful management," Merrick said, "we will be able to hold the price line."

Under the new contract Broadway actors get their first pension fund, the crux of the dispute which shuttered Shubert Alley. The pension terms extend for six years, two years beyond the life of the pact.

Other terms are:

Minimum pay for actors on the road will be $145 for the next two years and $150 the following two years. The present minimum is $135.

Per diem pay out of town goes to $10 or $12.50 depending on whether rehearsal payments are made. The present minimum is $7.50.

Rehearsal pay will be $82.50 for the first two years of the contract, $92.50 in 1962, and $97.50 starting in 1963. The minimum now is $75.

Minimum New York pay for actors goes from $103.50 to $117.50 a week.

Burton Zorn, the league's lawyer, described the settlement as a fair and reasonable compromise "with no victory on either side."

Helen Hayes, a member of the Equity council, hailed the settlement as "wonderful." One of the most significant aspects of the stage stoppage, she said, was that "the people of New York have been brought to a sharp realization of how important the theatre is to the city."

To finance the pension program, producers will contribute one percent of the actor's salary the first year, two percent in the second and third years, and three percent in the final three years.

Merrick disclosed that a five percent contribution by ticket

Witness Says Mrs. Jones Shook O'Day

Woman Died Soon After Shaking Neighbor Testifies

KANSAS CITY (AP)—A witness testified Thursday Mrs. Odie O'Day, 80, died a few minutes after she was shaken by Mrs. Mary Frances Jones, 77-year-old Sedalia woman who was caring for her.

The testimony was given at a preliminary hearing for Mrs. Jones on a second degree murder charge. The hearing later was continued until next Thursday at the state's request to obtain additional testimony.

Mrs. Mary Krummel, a neighbor of Mrs. O'Day told of an altercation and argument shortly before Mrs. O'Day's death. She said she walked into the room where Mrs. O'Day was seated on a bed and Mrs. Jones followed her.

"I told her she was making Mrs. O'Day very nervous and she began to shake Mrs. O'Day's shoulders," she said. "I tried to separate them and she (Mrs. Jones) knocked me against the bed. I threatened to hit her with a flower pot. I thought she was going for her throat."

She added she noticed Mrs. O'Day was gasping for breath and she began to massage the area over her heart. She said she told Mrs. Jones to get some water but the woman retorted: "No I will not get the water. Let her die."

The state contends the actions of Mrs. Jones caused Mrs. O'Day to have a fatal heart attack.

A death certificate introduced at the hearing showed the woman died of an arteriosclerotic heart condition.

Helicopter to Rescue Of Press Secretary

TOKYO (AP)—Ten thousand screaming leftist demonstrators, fighting against an Eisenhower visit to Japan, besieged the car of White House press secretary James C. Hagerty for more than an hour today, slashing the tires and cracking windows.

Finally, a helicopter was used to rescue Hagerty, U.S. Ambassador to Japan Douglas MacArthur II, and White House appointments secretary Thomas E. Stephens. None of them was injured.

Charges Filed In Slaying

Grandfather Admits Rape-Slaying Of Granddaughter

EXCELSIOR SPRINGS, Mo. (AP)—A 65-year-old ex-convict early today signed a statement admitting that he killed his teen-aged granddaughter, Police Chief Glenn Clevenger said.

Clevenger said William M. Faler, alias Cecil Floyd, signed the statement after 12 hours of continuous questioning. A charge of first degree murder was filed against Faler Wednesday. The charge carries a maximum penalty of death in the gas chamber.

The body of JoAnn Wyse, 13, was found Tuesday afternoon in a field near here. The search party was led by the grandfather, JoAnn had been missing 12 days.

Prosecutor Richard E. McFadin said JoAnn died during a rape attempt although an autopsy on the decomposed body failed to disclose the cause of death.

Chief Clevenger said Faler's statement said he strangled JoAnn.

"Faler said he met the girl near where the body was found," the chief said. "He said they were sitting there smoking when 'something came over me.'"

The chief said Faler claimed that he didn't remember anything else until he was walking away from the field, looked back and saw JoAnn's body on the ground.

Faler has served two prison terms—12 years for burglary and three years for a sex offense. A laborer who last worked as a cafe dishwasher, he had shared the home of JoAnn and her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Wise.

After Faler's arrest Tuesday, Mrs. Wyse said: "If he did it, I believe they should throw the book at him."

Mr. and Mrs. Wyse said they once found Faler and JoAnn registered as husband and wife at an Excelsior Springs hotel. And, they once complained to juvenile authorities that Faler was giving expensive gifts to JoAnn. Faler retaliated with a charge that Mr. and Mrs. Wyse were neglecting JoAnn. Nothing resulted from either action.

Scruton Again Heads Memorial Airport Board

The Sedalia Municipal Memorial Airport board of commissioners met Thursday night at the airport and reorganized. The board unanimously re-elected D. Kelly Scruton as its president.

David Routsong was elected vice president by a unanimous vote.

Dr. David H. Robinson was unanimously re-elected secretary-treasurer of the board.

The holdover members of the board are Dr. Robinson, Routsong and Ralph Becker.

Members appointed for two-year terms were Al Gardner, James T. Denny, and Scruton. Scruton was re-appointed by the Council, having been a member of the board for the past six years.

The board discussed plans of the future improvements of the airport, its budget for the coming year, and authorized a contract to be drawn between the City and John A. Reine to operate an aircraft repair shop in the large hanger. Reine recently moved to the Municipal Airport from the flying field of Jack Funk near Dresden.

Reine is an A and E mechanic and licensed FAA inspector, giving much added service to aircraft owners and pilots at the local field.

Hagerty and Stephens had just arrived to scout Eisenhower's trip, and started into Tokyo from the airport, along the route Eisenhower is scheduled to follow nine days hence. That visit is still on, Hagerty announced, despite today's demonstration—and the White House in Washington added confirmation that the plans still hold.

Tokyo police said they had been caught by surprise today, though the demonstration against Hagerty had been announced in advance.

"It was a big blunder for us," a police spokesman said.

The Japanese government apologized.

Hagerty told a news conference tonight:

"We are sure that the demonstrators in no way reflect the feeling and the attitude of the great majority of the Japanese people for whom America has the warmest friendship."

In Washington, associate press secretary Anne Wheaton said the President had "expressed gratification" that Hagerty and White House appointment secretary Thomas E. Stephens, who was with him, were not hurt by the demonstrators.

Asked whether the President would still go to Japan, Mrs. Wheaton said, "I know of no change in plans."

Hagerty, here to complete arrangements for Eisenhower's visit, said the demonstration was obviously carefully planned. He said the fact that the demonstrators were singing the "Internationale"—the song of international communism—raised doubts whether they even had allegiance to Japan.

The demonstrators, out to convince Hagerty that Eisenhower should postpone his trip, claim their real target is Kishi because his Liberal Democratic party pushed the new U. S.-Japan security alliance through the lower house of Parliament in a violent session May 20.

Street Decorator Contract Is Let For Centennial

Mrs. L. R. Raines, of the Raines Decorating Co. of Sedalia, was designated as official decorator for the Sedalia Centennial celebration, by the executive committee of the Centennial Association, of which D. S. Lamm is chairman.

Mrs. Raines was awarded the contract for across-the-street decorations for the downtown Sedalia business district. These decorations will be erected early in October and will remain up until Oct. 22, the final day of the celebration.

The committee suggested that Mrs. Raines also contact all of Sedalia's downtown business firms for store front decorations so the city will present its best gala appearance for Centennial week.

The state highway department is being contacted for permission to erect across-the-highway banners near the intersection of 65 and 50 highways and near Broadway and Ohio on Highway 50.

Carr Quits as Knob Noster City Clerk

B. E. Carr, Knob Noster city clerk for 10 years, announced his resignation Thursday afternoon, effective 60 days from this date.

Carr said that the time consumed by his post as city clerk did not leave him with enough time for his own business interests. He said the job did not pay enough to warrant his leaving the locker plant and appliance store he operates.

The office of city clerk has been in the Carr family for about 42 years. W. J. Carr, father of Bob Carr, held the office for 32 years, after which the younger Carr was elected to the post.

Missouri Lutherans Plant Meet

The problems of providing trained church workers and funds for buildings will receive major attention when representatives of 300 congregations of The Lutheran Church — Missouri Synod in this area meet in St. Louis June 13-17.

Sedaliaans attending the convention of the Western District will be the Rev. Walter F. Strickert, Loren Brakenhoff and Richard Felkner of St. Paul's Lutheran Church, and the Rev. Roland K. Lemke and Walter J. Knehan of Our Savior Lutheran Church.

During the past two years, church officials report, 18 mission stations were established and 16 congregations were organized in the four-state area of Missouri. Our Savior Lutheran Church.

During the past two years, church officials report, 18 mission stations were established and 16 congregations were organized in the four-state area of Missouri. Our Savior Lutheran Church.

Rev. Neal to Speak On Unheeded Prayer

The sermon topic of the Rev. D. Warren Neal at the Broadway Presbyterian Church Sunday will be "Our Unanswered Prayers."

All Junior-Hi members going to camp are to meet at the church at 7:45 a.m. Monday.

The Christian Education committee will meet Monday at 7:30 p.m. All teachers have been asked to complete and return the church school registration cards to the secretary, or to the director's office not later than July 1. The cards are needed for planning future schools.

Boy Scout Troop 65 will meet Monday at 7:30 p.m.

Wesley Methodist Schedule Changes

During the summer months the morning worship service at the Wesley Methodist Church will be held at 8:30 a.m. followed by the church school hour at 9:30 a.m. This schedule will continue through June, July and August.

Sunday morning in observance of Trinity Sunday, the pastor's sermon subject will be, "What's in a Name?"

The Chancel Choir will sing "Hymn to the Trinity" for the offertory. Sunday will also be observed as "Student Sunday" in all Methodist Churches, welcoming back to the congregation the student members who have returned home from college.

Wesley Church will be represented at "Conference Youth Delegates Week" at Camp Galilee, El Dorado Springs, by Patsy Duly and Mike Jonson, who have been elected delegates.

There will be no family night Wednesday for the month of June.

Sermon Topic On Launching Site Sunday

"Launching Site" is the sermon subject the Rev. Roy B. Stribling, pastor of the First Methodist Church, will use at the morning worship Sunday. Children in the junior department will attend the worship service and will hear a children's sermon on "The Jesus Highway." Don Richardson will sing, "He Shall Give His Angels Charge." The Tri-M Class will be given special recognition.

The Methodist Youth Fellowship will meet Sunday evening at 6:30. The program will be under the Fellowship Area of which Janet Morris and Jill Ragland are co-chairmen and Mrs. W. G. Killingsworth is adult advisor. The MYF is planning an ice cream social for June 17 to begin at 5 p.m. in the church dining room.

All commissions will meet Monday evening at 7. The official board will meet Monday evening at 8. This is the first meeting of the new conference year for these organizations and should be well attended.

The Wesley Methodist Church and First Methodist are combining their efforts to support a missionary couple, the Rev. and Mrs. David Butler, who will be stationed in North Africa. There is a possibility that they will visit the two churches the first Sunday in July. Rev. and Mrs. Butler have both had experience in the mission field as special term missionaries. Mr. Butler in Algiers and Mrs. Butler in Uruguay. Mrs. Butler's family lives in Kansas City.

First Baptist Church Sermon Is 'Forward'

Rev. J. R. Wallace, pastor of the First Baptist Church, will speak on the subject, "Forward," at the morning worship hour Sunday. The Church Choir will sing, "The Great Creator."

The message for the evening worship hour will be, "Taking Time for God." The Youth Choir will sing, "Trust in the Lord."

An Associational Sunday School rally will be held at the Hughesville Baptist Church Sunday afternoon at 2:30. Conference periods are in order for each department. The theme for the rally is, "Evaluating the Progress and Work of Our Sunday School."

Royal Ambassador boys ages nine through 16 will meet Wednesday at 6:45 p.m. Counselors for the RA's are Charles Morrison, William Nine, and Norman Luce. The prayer and Bible study time is 7:45 p.m. Wednesday.

Reformed Church Planning Picnic At Vermont Park

Immanuel Evangelical and Reformed Church (United Church of Christ) will hold its study, worship, picnic and family fellowship Sunday at Vermont Park. Church school and church worship will be held at the usual summer hour.

Pastor Armin F. Klemme will talk on "The Disciple, Bartholomew." At 11 a.m. the church school day program will practice. The congregational picnic will be at 11:30 a.m. Each family is to take a picnic basket of food and its own table service. Ice tea, coffee, soda pop and coffee will be available.

The church school is in charge of games and fellowship for all ages following the meal. In case of rain the day's activities will be held at the church.

The Junior High Youth Fellowship meets at Liberty Park, Sunday at 5 p.m. to go swimming and to have a wiener roast. Each youth is to take buns and wieners.

Vacation Bible school classes meet for the second and final week, Monday-Friday, 9-11:30.

Monday, 7 p.m., the Immanuel News will be typed and mimeographed, and assembled the next night at the same time.

Friday, the annual strawberry-ice cream festival will be held in connection with the close of Vacation Bible School. Strawberries, ice cream, shortcake, cakes, soda pop and coffee will be served 6-9 p.m. in the basement of the service building.

Sunday School Lesson Notes:

By William E. Gilroy, D.D.

Sunday School lessons for a long time have not been confined to one source or series. Some churches, differing with what they considered too liberal an attitude have issued a more conservative series of their own and special studies have long been in use by various church - school groups, which usually don't use the name "Sunday School."

Without any tangible evidence as to what lessons or studies are most commonly in use, I assume that the long-established "International Lessons" still lead, and I have been interested in the title of the lesson for June 12: "The Two Ways."

Without reference to the specific lesson treatment intended, the title has an international and specific application in a manner that could not very well have been anticipated.

In two ways, the summit collapse in Paris, could hardly have offered more precise, if tragic exemplification.

There are underlying and very real religious aspects that ought not to be ignored by all who have regard for moral and spiritual values.

If it were not so tragic and so dangerous, there would be something almost humorous and pathetic in a Khrushchev raising his hands to heaven and calling upon a God, in whom as an atheist he doesn't believe, to witness that his hands were free from espionage.

As everybody knows his spies have been active for years in the U.S.A. and in practically all countries.

The claim was as false as the appeal to a God in whom he didn't believe.

But there are deeper matters involved. Face-to-face with the two ways in a divided world, divisions so strong that eruption might wipe out the world as we know it, there is an increasing obligation upon all who name the name of Christ, and upon all who in other names share the same moral and spiritual ideals, to reassess the part they must play in the world crisis.

Above all it is the question confronting those who believe in right as against might, in freedom as against compulsion, and in spiritual beliefs as against materialistic and atheistic denials.

The forces of communism are so vast, especially as one considers the oncoming hordes of Communist China, that some Christians seem already to have lost heart, and show a readiness for compromise.

Recent cultural exchanges and conversations have not been in the spirit of compromise. They seem to have been conducted in good faith and with good manners.

On the other hand though undoubtedly well-intentioned, the appeal of some churchmen a short time ago for the political recognition of Red China, was far more questionable. It found an immediate reaction in the renunciation of the action by other churchmen and the formation of a protesting "Committee of a Million."

To recognize Red China at a time when fellow Christians are still under a persecution virtually annihilating seems rather to call for the most positive assertion of the Christian way.

Profoundly and above all, the religious need of the hour is that Christians, and all who share Christian ideals, should stick to their spiritual guns - which may in the end prove more powerful than actual guns.

It is a time to consider the Christian heritage and the Christian watchwords - when reviled to revile not against, to manifest the love of enemies that is not a compromise with righteousness, and to display to the world the advantages of the Christian way and of the democratic values, based on belief in God and the worth of man.

Those values are our greatest asset.

Kiwanians Hear Guest Speaker, Professor Wood

"Our Beginnings, a Lesson for Today" was the subject of a talk by Professor Rolla F. Wood, retired professor of history, Central Missouri State College, Warrensburg, speaking before the Sedalia Kiwanis Club at its meeting in Bothwell Hotel Thursday noon.

The speaker reviewed events leading up to and during the American Revolution and War for Independence, the conflicting philosophies of governmental controls, the formulating and inventions of new systems to cope with the problems of the colonies and later the states. The effectiveness and leadership of the times produced the Bill of Rights and Constitution, the provisions of which if adhered to today offer a bulwark against encroachment of ideologies unsuitable to a nation that would retain human freedoms for its citizens.

Professor Wood was introduced by Frank Wagner, program chairman.

On behalf of the club, President John Ryan presented trophies to the Kiwanis Civic League bowling champions: Norman Pitcairn, William Ward, Victor Scott, William Burkholder, William Dugan, Arthur Morgan and Gordon Childers.

In turn Pitcairn presented to Ryan a Sponsors Award Certificate from the Civic League for the club team's victory.

President Ryan, Vice-President William Schien and Secretary Pinkney Miller will represent the club at the Kiwanis International convention in Miami June 26.

Singing was led by Dave Eisenstein with Miss Lillian Fox, accompanist. In song the club recognized the June 6 birthday anniversary of M. D. Weathers.

Robert L. Ray was a guest of his father, George W. Ray.

Bothwell Ho'makers Hold Dinner Meeting

The Bothwell Homemakers Club met June 8 at the home of Mrs. Lucy Swope. A luncheon was served to 19 members and the following visitors, Mrs. Owen Wasson, Miss Connie Swope, Joann Reed, Kay Beth Sprinkle and Ruth Ann Wise. Mrs. Wasson became a member.

The program was on clothing given by Miss Lois Rumsey and Mrs. Dewey Swope. Mrs. Eunice McMullin gave a report on Alaska. Mrs. Raus Sprinkles, Mrs. Lester Sprinkles and Mrs. Jim Reed were appointed to the nominating committee.

Secret pal gifts were passed out. Mrs. Junior Swope led in a game. The next meeting will be July 6 at 10 a.m. at the home of Mrs. Carl Feagans.

Up To Japan

In the light of the explosive political situation in Japan there is good cause for worry over President Eisenhower's scheduled trip there later this month.

Sen. J. W. Fulbright, chairman of the Senate Foreign Relations committee who is given to careful, sober judgments, may have good sense on his side when he suggests that the President put the trip off until fall.

It is not an easy matter. The State Department fears a postponement would be interpreted in Tokyo as an evidence of weakness. We are also concerned that a delay might precipitate the fall of Premier Kishi's government.

Since the source of the difficulty is the Japanese leftist rebellion against the recently concluded U.S.-Japanese security pact, the United States would have much to lose if it actually, or even just apparently, buckled before Communist and Socialist pressures.

These leftists have concentrated all their weight on trying to force cancellation of Eisenhower's visit. If he did call it off, the action would be hailed in Japan, Red China and most of Asia as a major triumph, all aside from its specific effect on the treaty.

On the other hand, the Japanese are a highly volatile people. Their riots have been violent. They allow violence to erupt again and again even in their legislative deliberations. They have several times stormed Kishi's residence.

In these circumstances, the President's safety could be in serious jeopardy. Administration officials still appear confident they can protect him no matter how severe the reaction. But this does not change the prospect that the reaction may be dangerous.

Certainly a postponement ought to be manageable without suggesting weakness on America's part. The onus in this affair properly belongs on the Japanese.

They have a duly constituted government. Today it is threatened both by riot and by the Socialist move toward mass resignation from the Diet of its party's 125 members.

Is this how the Japanese want their country run in these troubled times?

If they really stand with the West, let them support a government bent on keeping order. Let them display emphatic disapproval of a party which seeks to subvert the democratic process by riot and resignation.

When they give these signs, a trip to Japan might seem a much wiser course for Mr. Eisenhower than it does today.

Nixon Jabbed With Red-hot Needle

By JAMES MARLOW
Associated Press News Analyst

WASHINGTON (AP) — Twice in a row, with no one in sight likely to take the Republican nomination away from him, Vice President Richard M. Nixon got jabbed with a red-hot needle. Both times this happened to be just long enough to let the Republican leaders in Congress rush to his defense against the needle — as they did — before he did any talking.

The first time it was Harold Stassen who jabbed him, just when Nixon seemed to have the Republican vice presidential nomination sewed up in 1956. Now it's New York's Gov. Nelson Rockefeller, just when Nixon seems to have the presidential nomination cinched, although Rockefeller would like to get it.

Rockefeller said it was about time Nixon started saying precisely where he stands on the big issues. Nixon replied that he not only has talked on them but has been more precise than Rockefeller.

The fact is: Neither has been completely precise at all. Few seekers of political office ever are.

It was only July 23, just a few weeks before the 1956 Republican convention, that Stassen started his dump-Nixon campaign, arguing Nixon would lose the party votes. Stassen suggested Christian

A. Herter of Massachusetts for the vice presidential nomination.

Republicans in Congress, with visions of Stassen splitting the party, rallied around Nixon. Herter didn't have a chance. In fact he said he not only didn't want the nomination but would nominate Nixon himself.

Nixon came out of silence then. He didn't waste any time on Stassen. He just praised Herter. But he reacted far more energetically to Rockefeller.

Rockefeller, who got out of the Republican presidential race last December and jumped back in May, fired his blast at Nixon on Wednesday. The Republicans in Congress closed ranks around Nixon.

Then Nixon went to New Jersey Thursday and at a news conference said he had talked on the issues and had been more precise than Rockefeller. He challenged the governor to a "discussion in depth," perhaps before television cameras. Rockefeller said Nixon "doesn't need me to interrogate him on television."

What follows is a run-down on the positions Rockefeller took on the issues in his Wednesday attack against Nixon and the vice president's statements in the past on those same problems.

National Defense: Rockefeller says defense is not good enough, suggests spending 3½ billion dollars more right away. Nixon says defenses are just fine but this country must spend whatever it costs to retain its strength.

Foreign Policy: Rockefeller did not say much more than that we are losing ground and must do something about it. Nixon doesn't concede any losses but he hasn't been any more specific than Rockefeller in this field.

Arms Control: Everybody seems to be for this, including Rockefeller and Nixon.

National Economy: Rockefeller calls for tax changes to encourage investments. Nixon said Thursday he has urged tax revisions, too, and then some.

Farm Problems: Rockefeller is doing something about them. Nixon says he is, too, but he has indicated before he wouldn't have a new farm program of his own until after he gets the presidential nomination.

Labor: Rockefeller is for compulsory arbitration, if necessary, to end big, damaging strikes. Nixon is against compulsory control. But how he'd cope with such a problem isn't clear at all.

Civil Rights: Rockefeller says he is all for racial equality but vague on how to achieve it. Nixon is for protecting civil rights but hasn't gone beyond the Eisenhower program, only part of which got accepted this year by Congress.

Federal Aid to Education: Rockefeller is for federal aid for school construction and for scholarships. Nixon is for federal aid to school construction.

Medical Help for the Aged: Rockefeller is for a medical program paid for through Social Security taxes. Nixon is against this way of paying the cost, but is supporting a federal-state sharing of part of the cost of voluntary health insurance.

Both men have a long way to go before they spell out in complete detail just where they stand on the issues. Nixon, for instance, has said he will stand on the Eisenhower administration's record but he will build on it.

He also says he differs with the administration on some major policies but won't spell them out until after he is nominated.

Epilepsy Is In No Way Tied To Any Criminal Tendency

By Harold Thomas Hyman, M.D.
Today's letterwriter is an epileptic. He writes that "with the help of the new drugs and the new thinking of the public I'm able to support a wife, a son and an aged mother."

He quite justifiably protests an account of the shooting of South Africa's prime minister which emphasized the fact that the assailant is an epileptic.

This suggested, the writer believes that epilepsy might be spotlighted unjustly as the cause of the attempted assassination.

"If you have any articles on epilepsy please send them to this reporter," my correspondent pleads.

This subject has been covered amply in news dispatches. I can, of course, add that epilepsy had no more to do with the attack on the prime minister than a cold in the head.

As my correspondent points out, there are perhaps two million epileptics in the United States. Most are gainfully employed. Indeed, many hold positions of great trust and responsibility.

I am quite sure that a very tender spot was touched in those who noted the unnecessary linking of the words "epilepsy" and "assassination."

Therefore, for what my efforts are worth, I am more than pleased to answer my correspondent's request to "bring out the facts and help discard ghost-in-the-closet theories."

Before leaving the subject, I'd like also to draw attention to a new booklet entitled "Epilepsy—Its Causes, Effects and Treatment" that may be obtained without cost from the Federal Association for Epilepsy, Inc., of 1729 F Street, N. W., Washington 6, D.C. (a nonprofit organization.)

Written by Dr. Virginia A. Duggins of the George Washington School of Medicine, the booklet emphasizes the dangers and economic waste of self-diagnosis and self treatment. It suggests the advantages of controlled medical management with an occasional operation when indicated.

Another admirable contribution of the association is its summer at the National Children's Rehabilitation Center in Leesburg, Va.

A nonprofit facility, the camp accepts children between 7 and 12 for periods ranging from two weeks to the entire summer.

Applications for admission may be addressed to the director, Dr. Charles Kram.

No Hope Given for Boost In Return on E, H Bonds.

By FAYE HENLE
I recently wrote a column urging Secretary of the Treasury Robert B. Anderson to raise the interest rate on Series E and H bonds.

Back from Anderson's office, via William H. Neal, national director of the Treasury's Savings Bonds Division, comes a reply that holds no promise of our earning more interest on these bonds.

But Neal's answer is filled with information you should have. He writes:

"It should be emphasized that savings bonds are savings instruments, not Treasury securities subject to fluctuation on the open market.

"Their rate should be compared with that offered by savings institutions, commercial banks, savings banks and saving and loan associations.

"Hence we believe the savings bond rate of 3½ per cent, when held to maturity is fair.

"In fact, the average rate of interest paid on the 150 billion dollars of savings in financial institutions the country over is actually less than 3½ per cent.

"Furthermore, in the case of saving bonds, the investment return is guaranteed for the full term of the bond, whereas the savings account interest or dividend rate may be revised downward at the option of the savings institution."

In his letter, Neal underscores "average rate of interest" in quoting the bank figure.

Commercial banks pay 3 per cent on their savings accounts, mutual savings banks 3½ per cent but will up this to 3¾ per cent if you leave your money with them two years or more. Savings and loan associations pay 4 per cent on the average.

Neal lists the advantages of savings bonds over other savings media by citing the guaranteed rate of interest. Of course, he notes this is less than 3¾ per cent if the bond is redeemed before it matures.

It is as easy to buy a savings bond as it is to make a bank savings deposit and savings bonds, he says, are readily replaceable when lost, stolen or damaged.

Important to you should be the fact that taxes need not be paid on Series E bonds yield until the bonds are cashed.

Thus, with the permitted extensions of maturity, many holders can postpone redemptions until time in life when they may be in a lower bracket or subject to no tax at all.

You should note that the Treasury calls its Series E and H bonds "instruments of savings" as opposed to investments. This instrument of savings, they cite, has been especially designed for the ordinary saver.

I'd suggest you think about your savings from a number of different angles.

The most important thing is to save regularly.

I spoke with the young head of a family recently who told me that when he gets his weekly pay check, he first takes out a sum that he allocates to savings, and then worries about meeting bills for shelter, food, clothing and so forth.

Set short term savings goals and use the various types of bank savings accounts for this money. Then set longer term goals and use such media as savings bonds.

Then, begin to think of investing your savings. Remember that the government offers investors marketable securities in the form of bills, notes, certificates and bonds similar, in some respects, to corporate, rail or utility bonds, common or preferred stocks or mutual funds.

When you invest seek the maximum opportunity for the growth of your money with the least possible risk.

For the present, you evidently must be satisfied with a smaller return on capital from the various savings instruments.

Visiting Married Children? Learn to Be Welcome Guest

If you want to make sure that you are always welcome in the homes of your married children:

Let them know when you arrive for a visit, exactly how long you intend to stay so that they can make their plans accordingly. Make certain before you plan your visit that the time is convenient for them.

Learn to be a guest in your children's home. Be as considerate and thoughtful in every way as though you were a guest in a friend's home.

Don't offer advice or ask prying questions or in any other way treat your grown sons and daughters as if they were children.

Don't interfere with the way your grandchildren are being reared. You had your chance with your own children. Now it is your camp program that opens June 6 ability to pay.

Dear Reader: Dr. Hyman appreciates your comments and questions but regrets that the heavy volume of his mail doesn't permit him to answer each individual letter or post card. However, he will comment in columns like the above upon matters of general or unusual interest.

children's turn to bring up their own children in the way they feel is best.

Don't criticize your children's friends. You may not like all of their friends but you don't have to say so.

Don't try to improve your daughter or your daughter-in-law's housekeeping. Either will resent it.

If your visit lasts more than a few days see that husband and wife get off by themselves now and then. Make some plans of your own or offer to stay with your grandchildren while their parents go out.

If there is any unpleasantness get out of the way. Go to your room to write letters—or do something—until the air is cleared.

Build husband and wife up to each other. Don't be stingy with your praise or admiration.

Keep your talk happy and cheerful. You may know a lot of bad news but don't dwell on it.

Give the housewife, whether she is your daughter or your son's wife, chance to be alone sometime during every day.

If you can remember these rules and stick to them, your visits should be happy times for the whole family and your own child will thank his or her lucky stars for having such a parent.

Political Climate Ripe for Rockefeller

By DREW PEARSON

NEW YORK—Nikita Khrushchev may or may not have wanted it that way, but there's one thing his acid remarks about Richard Nixon, "keeper of the cabbage patch," have definitely accomplished. He has made it almost essential for Gov. Nelson Rockefeller to become a definite candidate for president.

The reason is politically elementary, and privately recognized even by some of the hard-boiled GOP leaders already pledged to Nixon. It boils down to this:

Khrushchev's attacks on the present Republican administration have succeeded in dividing the American people into two general camps:

1. Those who lean more to Nixon because they resent the Khrushchev criticism;

2. Those who are so worried over war that they fear Kremlin hostility for Nixon might help induce war.

Under the circumstances, the easiest way out for Republican leaders is to get a fresh new candidate. They need one who hasn't been controversial, either in Moscow or the USA. For they know that the normal registration of Democrats in this country is considerably greater than Republicans, and if they lose any sizable group of voters over the peace issue they are sunk.

Nixon's Scar Tissue

Doctors have a word for a patient who has been to the hospital for a series of surgical operations. They say he has collected scar tissue. Politically speaking, Nixon is in the same boat. He has collected a lot of political scar tissue. He has taken a lot of stands on a lot of issues, some of them just the reverse of earlier stands. His opponents can quote him on a lot of sides of a lot of issues.

When Nixon ran for the Senate in 1950, he conducted the first McCarthy-type campaign in history by smearing Mrs. Helen Gahagan Douglas as pro-Communist. This was almost before McCarthyism got started. Nixon was in the vanguard. Then in 1959 he boosted his Gallup poll rating considerably by going to Moscow and making speeches as the friend of the Russian people. Some newspapers commented that it was the first time in history that an American campaigned for president inside the Soviet Union.

Nixon had completely reversed himself from the days when he attacked Helen Gahagan Douglas, wife of Melvin Douglas, the actor who, ironically, had been playing the lead in "The Best Man," a Broadway hit poking fun at a young politician who takes all sides of various issues and whom many critics compare to Nixon.

Aloof Rockefeller

On the other hand, Nelson Rockefeller is in the fortunate position of having kept completely aloof from the Russian issue. He has gathered no political scar tissue.

When the Soviet exhibition opened in New York last spring and summer he deliberately stayed away. As governor of New York he was invited to the opening. He did not go. He had a standing invitation afterward, but did not accept it. On one occasion he was in the same building housing the Soviet expedition, but did not enter the exhibition itself. The Russian embassy was quite piqued, actually made unofficial inquiries as to why.

Rockefeller also did not entertain or meet deputy Premier Mikoyan when he visited New York. Many other officials did. Later, he did shake hands and chat briefly with Premier Khrushchev.

On the general subject of Russia, Rockefeller is also fortunate. His only public positions are: 1, he proposed the "open skies" plan which Ike put forward at Geneva; 2, he has consistently urged strong military defenses; 3, he has carried the ball on the civil defense and bomb shelter programs.

Ike vs. Nelson

A lot of people have forgotten it, but it was over strong military defenses that Rockefeller broke with Eisenhower. As a member of the White House staff in 1957, Ike had given Rockefeller a tentative commitment to become deputy secretary of defense in order to bolster our military strength, then changed his mind on the advice of budget-pruning Secretary George Humphrey.

It was at this time that Rockefeller went back to New York, issued the famous Rockefeller brothers report highly critical of our lagging defenses. It was probably just as critical as the unpublished Gaither report.

Eisenhower, a military man who expects complete loyalty, even from ex-members of his administration, hit the ceiling. He has never forgiven Rockefeller for that report.

Since that time, Rockefeller has continued to remain aloof from Eisenhower and all Eisenhower policies. He has gone his own way, minded his own political business. He has never said anything against either Eisenhower or Nixon. He has made no comment on either their past policy of wooing Russia or their present reverse policy on Russia.

He has simply remained aloof.

And during the 1958 campaign, when Rockefeller was one of only two Republicans to win in the Democratic landslide, he was careful to run his own campaign, keep away from Washington. In fact, it was said in theatrically minded Manhattan that "the longest run on Broadway was that of Nelson Rockefeller keeping away from the Eisenhower administration."

There are some compelling political reasons, in the present confused climate, why a man like this makes the perfect candidate for President of the United States.

Guest Editorial

BANGOR (Maine) DAILY NEWS: Would This Be a Solution?—There has been criticism by some educators and others of including driver education courses in the schools, saying it takes up classroom time that could be better used for more essential school work.

These critics have a point. We don't consider driver training a "frill" in the sense that it is a needless course—far from it. Statistics show that graduates of accredited driver education courses are much better drivers than the untrained. The nation's grim traffic toll isn't going to be reduced much until driving habits improve and driver training is the answer.

However school time training does conflict with the new trend toward more classroom hours and more basic curricula. It occurs to us that the answer might lie in holding driver education courses after the regular school session. Youngsters who want to be good drivers should be willing to devote extra time to it and with parental encouragement we think they would.

Think It Through

By E. F. HUTTON

JOE DOAKES PAY THE MOST—The Tennessee Valley Authority is a government-controlled operation. Its losses are charged to the taxpayers. They don't know it, but they foot the bill, and Joe Doakes and wife pay the most.

Serviced by the TVA, are seven States, so-called "The Valley States." Beyond them are 41 States, in no way connected with this underhanded, political deal. The TVA has been exposed for what it is.

Now comes another plan. It's a peach, if you like Socialism. It's a 40-year plan.

The TVA bureaucrats and their followers want more Federal power. They want the Government to operate all the power plants, in which case it's Socialism—nothing but. This 40-year plan should be pitched into the Kremlin. The "boys" will never be happy without a 100 per cent socialized Federal monopoly.

One can't help but believe that those in the Valley States would gladly pay for their electricity as others do in the 41 States. After all, if it's proper to subsidize TVA's electric power and charge the losses to the American citizens, why don't the Socialists get their hands above the table and call their shots?

The deal is to increase Federal control over the kilowatting TVA, with eventual expansion of its operations everywhere.

When TVA covers the U.S.A., who will pick up the check?

Will Forecast Size of New Wheat Crop

WASHINGTON (AP) — A government crop report late today will give the first advance look at what's likely to happen to the size of the huge wheat surplus after this year's crop is harvested.

The report will provide the first official forecast of the size of the 1960 wheat crop — and hence an indication of how much grain is likely to be added to the record surplus of 1,310,000,000 bushels.

By comparison, the domestic market requires only about 600 million bushels a year. Exports have been running from 350 to 450 million bushels annually.

Advance field surveys indicate the crop will exceed last year's 1,128,000 bushels. Any production in excess of a billion bushels is likely to be added to the extra supply. Most of the surplus is held by the government under price support programs and involving a federal investment of nearly 3½ billion dollars.

The crop estimate comes while Congress is considering legislation designed to remedy some defects of the present program. The latter features annual planting allotments of 55 million acres — an acreage which allows too much to be grown — marketing quotas based on the allotments and price supports at 75 per cent of parity.

Parity is a standard for measuring farm prices declared by law to be fair to farmers in relation to prices charged them.

The Senate passed Thursday a bill to retain present price support levels for another three years, cut the acreage allotments by 20 per cent, and give farmers surplus wheat for cutting their plantings. The House is considering a different program.

The Agriculture Department moved ahead with plans to hold a grover referendum July 21 on continuation of the present program for the 1961 crop. It is required by law to do so. However, this could be set aside by new legislation.

Assumes Duties, Says Coup d'Etat Reports Untrue

JAKARTA, Indonesia (AP) — President Sukarno formally resumed his presidential duties today and denounced reports of an army coup d'etat as "an utter lie."

The president charged "certain interested foreign groups" with spreading false rumors so they could "have things their own way" and "split the unity of the Indonesian Republic." He refused to identify the foreign groups.

Rumors circulated on the Amsterdam Stock Exchange Thursday that the Indonesian army had arrested Sukarno following his return from a 64-day world tour and taken over the government. The rumors were denied by Information Minister Maladi.

Sukarno spoke with newsmen immediately following a ceremony in the presidential palace at which he relieved Chief Minister Djundana of the presidential powers he had exercised in the president's absence.

The president told the newsmen there was perfect understanding and appreciation of Indonesia's problems between him and Gen. Abdul Haris Nasution, the army chief of staff and minister of national security.

Missile Contract Let

KANSAS CITY (AP) — Swanson and Youngdale Co. of Minneapolis, Minn., has submitted the apparent low bid of $637,500 for construction of a missile assembly building at Schilling Air Force Base, Salina.

The government estimate was $786,320.

Army engineers received eight bids on the job, which consists primarily of remodeling an existing hangar.

To Prevent Mail Airlifting

Moulder Explains Reasons For Introducing His Bill

Congressman Morgan Moulder of Missouri this week, before a Special Subcommittee of the House Post Office and Civil Service Committee, explained his reasons for introducing a bill to prevent the further airlifting of first class mail by the Post Office Department.

"Every year," Moulder stated, "The railroads are being squeezed out of more and more mail-carrying business, yet they have an investment of about a billion dollars in their mail-handling equipment and facilities. The airlift could and has meant sudden death for scores of passenger trains all over the country."

Throughout his talk Moulder backed the cause of the railroads, whose problem is reportedly becoming more severe. He maintains that this is due primarily to Postmaster General Summerfield's experimental movement of first class mail by air, and his recent establishment of a nationwide airlift for mail.

He stated that he believes that if the airlift is to continue, it should be based on proper legislation, and not as an experiment. This legislation should be passed only after a thorough and comprehensive study of the experiment, which he claims was not a success.

"I am convinced that the airlift has been a complete failure, and could be proved so if the Postmaster General would give the Congress an honest and complete report on its operations during the past six years. That is my reason for introducing HR 9741 to prevent further airlifting of first class mail unless the appropriate rate of airmail postage is paid thereon," Moulder told the subcommittee.

Moulder continued to explain that the Postmaster General's claim to the success of the airlift experiment is false, both from an economic standpoint and from a time-saving standpoint.

He stated that the time consumed in trucking the mail from the post office to the airport, then trucking it from the airport terminal to the post office of delivery, and the re-routing of the mail in case the scheduled flight is delayed nullifies the claim of saving time.

The same action results in more money being spent to shuffle the mail around than it would have cost to carry the mail by train in the first place. He further explained that if the airmail rate was paid, the cost would be prohibitive.

Moulder concluded, "We must take speedy action to halt the Postmaster General's false economy spree and I urge the committee to act favorably on my bill or companion bills."

Warrensburg Fireman Joins Knob Noster Police Department

Keith Berry, a Warrensburg fireman who has been with the department for two years, will become a member of the Knob Noster police force next month.

Berry said he will work as a substitute for Charles Norman, Knob Noster chief of police, on days that he is not on duty but will not become a permanent member of the department until July 10.

Prior to being a fireman, Berry was a construction worker with W. J. Menefee Construction Company in Sedalia.

With the exception of being in the infantry for three years and spending a short time in Knob Noster and Holden, Berry has lived in Warrensburg all his life.

Berry resides at 210 Maple, Warrensburg, with his wife and two daughters, Barbara 17 years old and Sharon, 11 years old.

Film Is Shown Jaycee Members On Boys' Clubs

The Sedalia Junior Chamber of Commerce held its bi-monthly meeting Thursday night at the Coffee Pot Cafe, at which time John E. Brown, temporary president of the Boys' Club of America committee, showed a film to familiarize the Jaycees with the work of the Boys' Club. He stressed the need for such an organization in Sedalia.

Al Hall presented a check for $400 to the Jaycees for services rendered at the Memorial Day races by the club. A total of 40 members served in various capacities at the races.

Final preparations were made and discussed for the Third Annual Jaycee chicken barbecue to be held at the E. W. Thompson building, 1700 West Broadway on June 12. Serving will be from 11:30 a.m. to 9 p.m. Delivery service will be available to anyone so desiring. Tickets will be on sale between the hours of 6:30 p.m. on Friday and 10 a.m. Saturday in downtown Sedalia.

A guest for the evening was Raylee Peters, associated with the Montgomery Ward Store in Sedalia.

Predicts Best Shipping Year For Railroads

WICHITA, Kan. (AP) — A railroad official Thursday predicted the best shipping year in history for American Railroads this year at the Trans Missouri-Kansas Shippers Board Conference.

E. Paul Miller, manager of the closed car section of the American Assn. of Railroads, Washington, D. C., spoke at the opening session of the conference Thursday. He said 230,000 carloads of grain were moved by rail in Kansas, Missouri and parts of Oklahoma and Arkansas last year. He predicted third-quarter car loadings in this area will be 85,000. There are 12,000 cars assembled in the area as compared to about 8,000 a year ago.

G. W. Long, assistant chief program operations director for the Commodity Credit Corp., Kansas City, Mo., said Kansas agriculture officials predict a 1960 wheat yield of about 211,000 bushels, or nearly 19,000,000 more bushels of wheat than in 1959.

Long said he believed the yield might go as high as 220,000,000. Long added that grain storage men are ready for the 1960 crop. The railroads constantly have been moving wheat and other grains from the 1959 crop in the Missouri-Kansas area and it appears there is adequate storage for the 1960 crop.

Virgil Bacon reported Thursday that someone had taken three hubcaps off a Buick that was towed to his service station.

Joe Heck, 1503 Country Club Blvd., reported Thursday that his garage had been broken into. Two juveniles admitted the break-in, and the matter was settled.

Police Reports

The Eakins Transfer Co. reported Thursday that the firm has lost Missouri truck license plate 619-857.

Paul Wood, 1009½ East Broadway, Thursday reported the loss of Missouri car license plate HA 2-361.

Joe Heck, 1503 Country Club Blvd., reported Thursday that his garage had been broken into. Two juveniles admitted the break-in, and the matter was settled.

Police Court

O. W. DeLapp, 110 East 16th, charged with parking in a restricted zone, failed to appear and his $2 bond was ordered forfeited.

George Leslie Williams, Chicago, charged with being drunk and disturbing the peace on a Missouri Pacific train, pleaded guilty and was sentenced to 30 days in jail.

Eight overparkers failed to appear and their $1 bonds were ordered forfeited and 118 others paid the 25-cent fee.

Thieves were busy again in Green Ridge Wednesday night or early Thursday morning, according to the Pettis County Sheriff's report. Two business places were broken into and various items stolen. No clues were found leading to the identification of the burglars.

The first report was received at 7:50 a.m. Thursday of a break-in at the Ward's DX Service Station, owned by Raymond Ward, Green Ridge. Five tires and three cartons of cigarettes were reported missing.

The second report, at 9 p.m., came from John Bruns, owner of the J & R Cafe, Green Ridge. An undetermined number of cartons of cigarettes were missing, but no other losses were reported.

Deputy Sheriff E. E. George and George Brown investigated both break-ins.

Margie Imogene Loucks filed a petition for divorce against John Edward Loucks in Circuit Court Thursday. Attorney for the plaintiff is D. S. Lamm.

Officers said Ramona was walking on a concrete tunnel along the floodway when she slipped and fell. Freda reached for her and dropped into the deep water. Miss Taylor ran to help and also slipped in. None could swim, but Smith hauled all three out.

Now therefore notice is hereby given that pursuant to the terms of said deed of trust and at the request of the holder of the note and obligations thereby secured and for the satisfaction of the note and obligations secured by said deed of trust and to pay the costs and expenses of the execution of said trust, the undersigned successor trustee will, on Monday, the 30th day of June, 1960, between the hours of ten o'clock in the forenoon and five o'clock in the afternoon, at the East front door of the Circuit Court House in the City of Sedalia in the County of Pettis, Missouri, sell at public vendue to the highest bidder for cash the real and personal property described in said deed of trust, to-wit:

Lot Six (4) in Block one (1) of J. L. DeJarnette's Second Addition to the City of Sedalia, Pettis County, Missouri.

Also all disappearing beds, ice boxes, mechanical refrigeration units, equipment for heating, lighting and cooking, mirrors, doors and window shades and such personal property as is furnished by landlord in renting or operating an unfurnished building similar to the building on said premises.

Successor Trustee, Barnett, DW 3-27, 6-3, 6-10, 6-17.

Army of Worms Hit the County

A heavy infestation of Army Worms has been reported in Timothy on one farm in Pettis County. When they appear in one place, they usually can be found in others. They probably will ruin the hay or seed crop if very many are present and they will cut the heads from small grain. There is also danger of them moving to near by corn fields.

Treatment with insecticides will prevent the use of the hay or pasture for dairy cows or beef cattle being fattened for slaughter. If the crop is to be used for hay, it should be mowed now rather than sprayed.

On small grains, if head clipping does occur, or if you can find 4 or more non-parasitized worms per square foot, treat immediately. Use either 4 ounces dieldrin or 1½ ounces toxaphene per acre for control. The intervals between application and harvest must be observed in order to avoid excessive residues remaining on the grain at the time of harvest.

The limitations on dieldrin are as follows: Do not harvest grain within seven days for oats, rye, and wheat; Do not allow dairy animals or animals being finished for slaughter to graze in treated fields.

Notice is hereby given that a final settlement and petition for determination of the persons who are the successors in interest to the personal and real property of the decedent and of the extent and character of their interests therein and for distribution of such property, will be filed in the Probate Court of Pettis County, Missouri, by the undersigned on the 2nd day of July, 1960, or as continued by the court, and that any objections or exceptions to such settlement or petition or any item thereof must be in writing and filed within ten days after the filing of such settlement.

In an 11 Inning Battle

BJ Chiefs Defeat
Tipton Team 6-5

The Ban Johnson Chiefs edged a strong Tipton team last night, 6-5, in an extra innings game. Despite Tipton hurler Dennis Thompson's ability to retire 15 Chiefs on strikes, Sedalia collected ten hits in an attack led by Marvin Droegge and Nicky Nichols. The game was played at Tipton, and it took three Sedalia pitchers and 11 innings to quiet the opposition.

The Chiefs jumped to an early two run lead in the top of the first, Marvin Droegge and Charlie Newman hit safely, a walk was yielded, and Tipton was benevolent with two fielding errors.

Sedalia's next scoring came in the top half of the fifth when Nicky Nichols parked one over the left center field fence with Droegge on third.

Going into the bottom of the sixth and leading by four runs the Chief's starter, Vernon Ditton, ran into trouble. Ditton gave up two walks and a double, good for two Tipton runs. Manager Edward Kubli then brought in reliever Evert Smith who only lasted for two hitters. He walked the first man and allowed a double to score two more runs, tying the game. Jim Coons came in and dropped the last two Tipton batters with strikeouts.

The Chiefs were good to Tipton in the seventh as two throwing errors and a passed ball put Tipton out in front, 5-4. Sedalia finally bounced back in the eighth to score one run on Schoenberg's base hit, a fielder's choice and a wild pitch.

Both teams played tight defensive ball in the ninth and tenth innings, and there was no threat to a scoreboard change. Finally in the top of the eleventh, Sedalia pushed across the clinching run. Dick Horner led off with a walk. He stole second base and advanced to third on a fielder's choice. Droegge then rapped his fourth hit of the game to bring across the leading run. In the last half of the inning Jim Coons easily retired the Tipton batters, making the final score 6-5.

Hitting honors went to Droegge who slammed four hits including a double and a triple. Nichols had the only home run of the evening.

The winning hurler was Jim Coons who now has a 2-0 record for the season. Dennis Thompson, who was credited with the loss, went all the way for Tipton. He gave up ten hits and fanned 15 Chiefs.

Sedalia's next game will be at Liberty Park Sunday evening at 8 o'clock. The local boys will face last year's Western Division Champions, Lowery City.

Current Champ
Heads Entrants
In Golf Tourney

ALBUQUERQUE, N. M. (AP)—Defending Champion Steve Spray heads 89 entrants in the 1960 Western Golf Assn. National Junior Championship tournament which begins June 14 here.

The field includes five of the eight quarterfinalists of the 1959 tournament plus 12 former or current state champions.

Spray, 19-year-old University of Iowa sophomore, is exempt from the 36-hole qualifying rounds which will consume the first two days of the five-day meet.

Two boys who lost to Spray last year are back for another try—Don Stickey, Columbus, Ohio, lost 2 and 1 to Spray in the semifinals and Chuck Newton, Ann Arbor, Mich., who lost to Spray, 1-up in 19 holes in a quarterfinal match.

Two other 1959 quarterfinalists on hand are Tom Ahern of Detroit and Bill Cochran of St. Louis. Cochran is the son of Bob Cochran, who three weeks ago reached the finals of the British Amateur. The elder Cochran won the WGA junior title in 1931.

Kansas will be represented by John Stevens of Wichita, who holds the state high school and Wichita city titles.

BEMIDJI, Minn. (AP)—Tight races for both individual and team titles developed today as the National Assn. of Intercollegiate Athletics (NAIA) golf championships head into the final round.

W. Wright of Western Washington and Lamar College of Beaumont, Tex., led in the two divisions, but Thursday's round bunched challengers within striking distance.

Carl Snelson of Central Oklahoma State blistered the Bemidji Town and Country Club course with 3-under-par 69 to move within two strokes of Wright. Wright, with a 54-hole total of 216, was one-under-par Thursday.

Weekend
Fishing
Outlook

JEFFERSON CITY (AP)—Fishing conditions in Missouri range from fair to good and success ranges from fair to excellent, the state conservation commission reported today.

All trout streams were reported clear and at normal levels with catches running fair to good at Bennett Springs, Montauk, Roaring River and Meramec Spring.

Northwest Missouri streams were reported dingy to clear in the lower portions and muddy in the upper reaches. Natural baits are reported fairly productive for catfish, channel cat and carp.

Conditions in west central Missouri streams were reported good. Summary of lake condition: Bull Shoals—Clear; black bass hitting good on surface lures; crappie and bluegill hitting fair on minnows and trotlines landing good catches of channel cat.

Lake of Ozarks—Osage arm dingy but trotlines taking lunker channel cat and crappie fishing good; Gravois arm on upper end bass and crappie biting on minnows; Upper Glaize and Upper Niangua arms clear and fairly productive of bass, crappie and channels.

Table Rock—Clear; black bass hitting excellent on surface lures, crappie hitting good on minnows and natural baits taking good catches of channel cat and bluegill.

Lake Taneycomo—Clear; black bass, bluegill and trout hitting on both artificial and natural bait; minnows getting fair catches of crappie and channel cat.

Trimble Lake—Clear, bluegill and bullheads hitting good on natural bait; all other species poor.

Lake Paho—Dingy; fair catches of large mouth bass and bluegill; bass running fairly large.

Montrose Lake—Dingy; water clearing and should be in good shape for weekend anglers barring further rains; crappie, channel cat, sunfish and bullheads hitting good on natural bait.

Lake Dixie Lake—Clear; black bass hitting fair on surface lures, bluegill and sunfish good on minnows and worms.

Goetz, Vossler
Ahead Early In Okla. City Open

OKLAHOMA CITY (AP)—The south wind—always a factor in Oklahoma golf tournaments—resumed Thursday after being calm several days but it didn't stop Ernie Vossler and Bobby Goetz from grabbing the lead in the first round of the Oklahoma City Open.

Vossler, a veteran from Midland, Tex., and Goetz, a rookie on the professional circuit from Tulsa, Okla., fired 5-under par 66's over the 6,440-yard, par 71 Twin Hills Country Club course.

The 72-hole, $30,000 tournament ends Sunday.

Hot on the trail of Goetz and Vossler going into today's second round was Johnny Pott of Shreveport, La., who carved out a 35-32-67.

Arnold Palmer, the defending champion, started with a 2-over par 37 on the front nine then closed with five birdie putts for a 31 and a 68 total that tied him with Bob McCallister of Yorba Linda, Calif., Tommy Jacobs of Bermuda Dunes, Calif., and Don Fairfield of Casey, Ill.

A large group at 69, still well in contention, included Julius Boros, Doug Sanders, Lionel Hebert and Gardner Dickinson Jr.

Well Known Golfer
John Caldwell Dies

ST. JOSEPH, Mo. (AP)—John H. Caldwell, 72, prominent in golf circles here for many years, died Thursday at the Wadsworth, Kan., Veterans Hospital.

Caldwell was golf pro at Molla Country Club here from 1929 to 1955 and previously had held similar positions at Council Bluffs, Iowa, Kearney, Neb., St. Louis and Vicksburg, Miss.

He was born in Scotland and was a veteran of World War I, serving overseas in the American army.

Baby Birds Fade

Indians, Yankees
In Crucial Series

By ED WILKS
Associated Press Sports Writer

The Cleveland Indians, leading the American League by 1½ games now that Baltimore's Baby Birds have laid an egg, roll into Yankee Stadium for the opener of a four-game series tonight in a showdown with the revived New York Yankees.

Cleveland now has won five in a row, sweeping a four-game set at Boston with a 3-2 decision over the last place Red Sox Thursday. Baltimore, blowing a 1½-game lead in 48 hours, dropped a 7-5 night doubleheader to Detroit, 7-5 and 7-4, as the Tigers swept the four-game series and handed the Orioles their sixth defeat in eight games.

The Yankees, 3½ games behind after winning five of their last six, made it three straight over Chicago with a 5-2 victory that spilled the White Sox to fifth, .002 percentage points behind Detroit.

Kansas City ended its losing string at five with a 7-2 victory at Washington.

In the National League, Pittsburgh regained a two-game lead with an 11-3 victory at Chicago while Cincinnati whipped second place San Francisco 7-4. Third place Milwaukee, 4½ games behind, defeated Los Angeles 6-5 in the only other game scheduled.

A sixth-inning home run by George Strickland, the first of the year by the Cleveland third baseman, hung the defeat on Bill Monbouquette (5-5). Rookie Wynn Hawkins (4-3) needed two innings of two-hit, shutout relief by Johnny Klippstein for his first victory in three decisions.

The Tigers made it six out of seven on a pair of home runs by Frank Bolling, who drove in five runs to beat reliever Arnie Portocarrero (3-2) in the opener. Then the Tiger second baseman triggered a five-run fifth with a two-run homer as Detroit wiped out a 2-1 Baltimore lead and beat Hal (Skinny) Brown (5-2).

Mickey Mantle's two-run homer in the fourth inning, his 11th of the year, did it for the Yankees. Rookie Johnny James (2-0) won it in relief. Frank Baumann (3-3) was the loser.

Danny Kravitz hit an inside-the-park home run Thursday night, the key hit of a six-run Kansas City outburst in a 7-2 A's victory over the Senators at Washington.

The A's had seven straight hits—after two outs—in their six run fifth inning.

It was the first American League homer for Kravitz, former Pittsburgh catcher.

He sliced a looping liner down the left field line. Leftfielder Jim Lemon, playing the southpaw batter toward left center, attempted a running, backhanded grab. He couldn't make it and the ball skidded by. Before Lemon could relay the ball home, Kravitz circled the bases.

Whitey Herzog singled after two were out, Norm Siebern and Marv Throneberry followed with singles for one run, then Kravitz got his homer.

Dick Williams, Ken Hamlin and pitcher Ken Johnson each singled for two more runs.

Johnson allowed the Senators 6 scattered hits, struck out 10 and walked two as he recorded his second victory against three losses.

The St. Louis Cardinals were idle Thursday.

Believes Team
Will Oust Lamar
Tech Some Day

KANSAS CITY (AP)—It may take another Aussie or so to get the job done, but Coach Harry Meng of Pan American College is confident that some day his team will oust Lamar Tech as national intercollegiate (NAIA) tennis champion.

Both Lamar Tech of Beaumont, Tex., and Pan American of Edinburg, Tex., came through the first day of this year's national intercollegiate meet Thursday in stride. All of the seeded entries, 5 from Tech and 3 from Pan American, advanced easily through the first three singles rounds.

Lamar Tech is seeking its sixth straight NAIA team title. Pan American was runnerup last year.

"Lamar Tech has a great team," Meng said. "We never have beaten a Tech team, but our boys are determined and one of these times we'll slip up on them."

Personnel of the two Texas teams give the tournament international flavor. Four of the six Tech players are from abroad, while Pan American's No. 1 and 3 players are Don Russell and John Sharpe of Melbourne, Australia. They also are defending doubles champions.

Tech's defending singles champion, Reginald Bennett, is from England.

Bennett, who met Rudy Hughes of Northern Michigan in today's fourth round, drew a first round bye before eliminating Richard Normand of Oshkosh (Wis.) 6-2, 6-1 and Ross Moreton of Carson-Newman, 6-1, 6-2. The other seeded players won with equal ease.

Overcash Signs With Kansas City Athletics

CLEARWATER, Fla. (AP)—Ronnie Overcash, 19-year-old first baseman for the University of Florida, today signed a baseball contract with the Kansas City Athletics for a "substantial" bonus.

Overcash, a Clearwater resident, said he will report to Sioux City, Iowa, of the Class B Three I League June 13.

Jack Sanford, Kansas City scout who signed Overcash, said, "We feel that he should be up with the parent club within two years. He is a valuable asset to our organization."

Sanford didn't reveal the amount of the bonus.

Overcash led the Gators at the plate this season with a .360 average, in addition to being the club's leading RBI man.

Thursday, the Athletics paid between $25,000 and $35,000 to 19-year-old Frank Cipriani to sign a contract. Cipriana, a Fordham University student from Buffalo, is an outfielder. He will report June 27 to Sanford of the Class D Florida State League.

San Francisco's slumping Giants shove off on what could be a week of worries—seven days against Milwaukee and Pittsburgh—as they open a four-game series with the Braves tonight.

The second place Giants slid two games behind Pittsburgh in the National League race with a 7-4 loss to Cincinnati Thursday, their sixth defeat in 11 games on the home stand, while the Pirates rapped Chicago's Cubs 11-3.

Milwaukee, 4½ games behind in third place, made it seven out of nine by coming from behind for a 6-5 victory at Los Angeles Thursday night in the only other game scheduled.

In the American League, Cleveland took a 1½-game lead by defeating Boston 3-2. Detroit completed a four-game sweep at Pittsburgh that dropped the Orioles to second place, beating the Birds 7-5 and 7-4 in a two-night doubleheader. New York took over third place from Chicago with a 5-2 victory that spilled the White Sox to fifth place, .002 percentage points behind Detroit. Kansas City defeated Washington 7-2.

The Braves won behind Lew Burdette (5-2) and reliever Joey Jay at Los Angeles, after wiping out a 4-1 Dodger lead with five runs in the seventh against Don Drysdale (4-8).

Ed Mathews' single scored the clincher for the Braves in the seventh after Red Schoendienst tagged reliever Ed Roebuck for a three-run double. The Braves had chased Drysdale with four singles and a sacrifice fly by Frank Torre, who was hitting for Burdette, to get the rally rolling.

Duke Snider, Wally Moon and Junior Gilliam homered for the Dodgers, who have lost seven of their last 10 at home.

The Reds came from behind on four runs with two out in the seventh. They got three on Jerry Lynch's home run off loser Jack Sanford, then counted the deciding run when reliever Billy O'Dell walked Willie Jones with the bases loaded. Reliever Billy Loes then gave up solo homers by Vada Pinson and Whitey Lockman in the eighth and ninth.

Lefty Bill Henry saved it for Joe Nuxhall (1-2) by fanning pinch-hitter Willey McCovey and getting Willie Kirkland on a fly with the bases loaded in the eighth.

Don Hoak drove in three runs as the Pirates beat Glen Hobbie (5-7) for the third time. Bob Friend (7-3) won it with two innings of hitless relief by Fred Green after Ernie Banks hit a two-run homer in the sixth.

Hal Boyle's Column
Beware the Summer Athlete, That Perennial Boy Scout
By HAL BOYLE
NEW YORK (AP)—It takes a lot of ingenuity to survive summer—in middle age. When you're a barefoot boy with cheeks of tan, summer is a golden time in a golden prime, ripe with promise and full of childhood ecstasies. School is out, woodlands beckon and there's the fresh thrill of scuffling newly-freed toes in the dust, of dropping a squirming worm into a pebbly brook and catching something—even though it isn't much larger than a sardine. But in middle age summer is a season that has its perils as well as its performance. If one could lie at ease on a cot in a shady yard and let the

Co. Grain Sorghum Support to be $1.60
The price of 1960-crop grain sorghum will be supported in Pettis County at the rate of $1.60 per hundredweight for No. 2 or better, C. A. Staples of the county Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation office has announced. Support on grain sorghum will be available, as in previous years, in the form of purchase agreements or loans on farm or warehouse-stored grain. Support will be available from harvests through Jan. 31, 1961. Grain sorghum loans mature March 31, 1961. Farmers wishing to store price-support grain sorghums in a terminal warehouse may obtain terminal rates from the county ASC office. mat, and pull down the venetian blinds, you can't always escape the summer athlete. For what happens? Exhausted by his hysterical outbursts of boyish energy, the summer athlete often keels over and expires in his own perspiration. It always happens during the sultriest heat of the year, and no matter how much you grumble, your wife insists you have to go out into the hot sun to attend his funeral. Finis the summer athlete. But you don't do much celebrating. Come next June another summer athlete will rise to take his place—and ruin a perfect season.

New Officers Installed By Jaycee-ettes

The Sedalia Jaycee-ettes held their seventh annual installation banquet at Flat Creek Inn, Tuesday.

Officers for the year were installed by Mrs. Jo Ann Knaphide of the Lexington, chapter of the Jaycee-ettes. They are: Mrs. John Handley, president; Mrs. Joe Van Horn, vice president; Mrs. Allen Hawkins, secretary; and Mrs. Ed Ertel, treasurer.

Mrs. Bill Arnold was the mistress of ceremonies for the program. Mrs. Gene Knothe, immediate past president, was presented with a gift from the club for her services during the past year.

The theme for the evening was the "centennial" with old fashion dolls centering the tables. The program books were decorated with hand painted portraits of old fashion men and women in centennial costumes. The highlight of the evening was a group of square dancers dressed in centennial costume. Herb Winebrenner was the caller for the group. Mrs. Mary Frances Herndon, accompanied by Miss Doris Stott, sang several numbers of yesteryear.

Mrs. Don Bellmer was the chairman of the banquet arrangements, assisted by Mrs. Sally Schumaker, Mrs. Gene Knothe, Mrs. Bill Huhman, Mrs. Mitzi Delph, and Mrs. John Handley. Guests for the evening were: Mr. and Mrs. Rick Fullerton, Mr. and Mrs. Gene Knaphide, Lexington, Mrs. Betty Maxwell, Windsor, Mr. and Mrs. Rick Flippin, Mrs. Allen Hawkins, Mr. and Mrs. Gene Knothe, Mr. and Mrs. Bill Arnold, Mr. and Mrs. John Handley, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Van Horn, Mr. and Mrs. Sally Schumaker, Mr. and Mrs. Don Bellmer, Mr. and Mrs. Bill Huhman, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Allegra, and Mr. and Mrs. Ed Ertel.

Patrolman, Prowler Enter Mexico; Both Wind Up in Jail

SAN DIEGO, Calif. (AP)—Denny Hart, the persistent patrolman pursued a prowler into Mexico—and now both are in the pokey. Hart refused to give up the chase Wednesday when a prowler he chased from San Diego fled across the border. Hart, 44, was across the border. Hart, 44, was across the border. Hart, 44, was across the border.

An immigration officer locked Hart up, charging him with violating Mexican immigration laws. The man Hart had pursued from a customs warehouse was arrested by Mexican authorities and also jailed.

Telephone Poles, Wire Laid by Helicopter

SCRANTON, Pa. (AP)—The Bell Telephone Co. of Pennsylvania has planted 40-foot utility poles and stretched wire from the air by helicopter.

The successful experiment was performed in an inaccessible mountain area in the state's north-eastern section, near Lake Como and bordering on New York.

The job was to set 32 poles along a two-mile stretch. All the poles will be in and wired later today. The work started Wednesday.

Holes were dug by men on the ground. Then a twin-rotor helicopter, aided by strong winds, dropped in the poles at the rate of one every five minutes.

Wire dropped out of the aircraft and was attached by linemen mounted on the poles.

TV Viewing Good, With Dial Twists

By CYNTHIA LOWRY
AP TV-Radio Writer

NEW YORK (AP)—It may require a little dial twisting, but it is still possible to find a quantity of new a potentially interesting viewing in the schedules of the three major networks during the next week.

The second part of NBC's "Sacco and Vanzetti Story" will be shown tonight (8:30-9:30). While the Reginald Rose drama drew mixed reviews and has fired up a new 30-year-old controversy, it is a show that people have been and will be talking about.

Also on NBC tonight 10 p.m. to conclusion, is the middleweight championship fight between Sugar Ray Robinson and Paul Peder, from Boston.

On Saturday, CBS will televise the 90th running of the Belmont Stakes, from New York (4:30-5 p.m.). NBC's World Wide 60 series (9:30-10:30 p.m.) will be devoted to politics and primary elections.

Former President Harry S. Truman will be interviewed on ABC's Sunday "College News Conference" (1-1:30 p.m.) and Sen. John F. Kennedy will be the guest on NBC's "Meet the Press" (6-6:30). Ed Sullivan's 12th anniversary show (CBS, 8-9) will star among others, Victor Borge. "Summer Hero," by Charlotte Armstrong is NBC's mystery show this week (9-10) and CBS' Hitchcock drama (9:30-10) stars Hermione Gingold.

A repeat showing of "The Margaret Bourke White Story," takes over Steve Allen's vacated Monday night hour on NBC (10-11).

An art film, "How Tall Is a Giant?", about a Mexican team winning the 1957 Little League World Series, will be shown on NBC Tuesday evening (8:30-11).

Ann Sheridan stars in Wednesday evening's Steel Hour drama, "The Impostor" (CBS, 10-11). And on Thursday evening on CBS (10-11) there's a concert of folk music featuring young American artists.

Will Supply Coal For New Station

PITTSBURG, Kan. (AP)—Pittsburg and Midway Coal Mining Co., announced Thursday it has signed a long term agreement with the Arizona Public Service Co. to supply coal for a new 110 kilowatt steam electric generating station. The station is to be built near Joseph City, Ark., at a cost of about 19 million dollars.

The firm will supply the plant's needs from mines in New Mexico. Initial mining operations will be conducted west of Gallup, where a new open-cut mine capable of producing one million tons of coal a year is being prepared. Construction will begin in 1961 with production scheduled by January, 1962.

The generating plant is scheduled to be completed by 1962.

Convicted of Bombing Home of Negro Pupil

LITTLE ROCK, Ark. (AP)—A 30-year-old Negro has been convicted of bombing a Negro pupil's home last Feb. 9 and sentenced to five years in prison and fined $500.

Maceo Antonio Binns Jr., was the second Negro convicted in the blast which caused minor damage at the home of Carlotta Walls, one of eight Negro pupils who attended integrated schools here last term. Herbert Odell Monts drew a five-year term on May 19.

Says Police Refused To Return His Money

DETROIT (AP)—Thomas Mines, 40, wrote from his state prison cell and told Recorder's Judge John A. Ricca that police had refused to return the $73 Mines said he had when arrested Jan. 5.

Mines later pleaded guilty to possession of burglary tools.

Ricca checked and found Mines had $75.01 when arrested. He also found that Wayne County had paid an attorney $75 to represent Mines.

Ricca ordered the $75 paid to the county to refund the fee, then he ordered the penny left sent to Mines.

Will Avert Showdown If Possible

UNITED NATIONS, N. Y. (AP)—Western diplomats are trying to work out a face-saving compromise to avert a showdown between Argentina and Israel in the United Nations over Adolf Eichmann.

Argentina charged the seizure of Eichmann by Jewish commandos in Buenos Aires violated her sovereignty and said she would appeal to the U. N. unless Israel returned him. The former Nazi is accused of helping direct Hitler's extermination of the Jews.

Informed sources in Israel said Prime Minister David Ben-Gurion would not comply with Argentine demand. But he was reported to have sent a conciliatory letter to Argentine President Arturo Frondizi.

Official sources in Buenos Aires said Argentina would sympathetically consider mediation of the dispute by some foreign country or a suggestion that the case be taken up by the International Court in The Hague.

Diplomats in the South American capital speculated that a European country—perhaps France—might be asked to mediate.

Frondizi and Ben-Gurion will both be touring Europe next week and their paths may cross in Paris. Western authorities in London were reported behind the move to let the World Court—organ of the United Nations—rule whether Eichmann was kidnapped or, as Israel claims, agreed to go with his Jewish captors and stand trial.

There was no indication from Jerusalem that Israel would be willing to go to the World Court, however.

The international tribunal usually moves slowly, sometimes taking years for a decision in major cases. And with feeling running high in Israel against the ex-Nazi, the Israeli government is going ahead with plans for a showcase trial within a year to bring out details of the Nazi extermination of six million European Jews.

Tax Conspirators May Win a Release From Parole Board

ST. LOUIS, Mo. (AP)—A federal judge has ruled that T. Lamar Caudle and Matthew J. Connelly, Truman administration officials convicted of tax conspiracy, may be released from prison at the discretion of the U.S. Board of Parole.

Judge Gunnar Nordbye's authorization cleared the way for possible release of the two before they complete one-third of their two-year sentences.

Connelly was President Harry S. Truman's appointments secretary. Caudle was head of the Justice Department's tax division. They entered prison May 4 after a long series of appeals failed.

Lucy and Bob Are Filming 'Life's Facts'

By BOB THOMAS

HOLLYWOOD (AP)—Lucille Ball is breaking in her first new leading man in nine years. Fellow from Cleveland named Bob Hope.

The famed pair is making a movie—the real, big-screen kind for theaters, not the living room box. The provocative title is "The Facts of Life."

The facts of Lucille's life are that she is as happy as could be expected, that she is plunging into work following her marital and professional divorce from Desi Arnaz.

We shared lunch in her dressing room at the Desilu-Cahuenga lot, where she toiled her years in "I Love Lucy." She and Desi still own the studio, along with two others.

Lucille seemed restrained and contemplative as she talked about the present and future. She appeared less willing to glance at the past.

"I love working with Bob," she said. "He's always such fun and such a professional. It sounds funny, but I always feel like a real part of show business when I'm working with him."

"Doing a feature again after all these years is kind of hard. I had forgotten what pains they take to make movies."

"Another thing I had forgotten is how much time they take with your personal appearance. In TV, it didn't matter so much how I looked, so I never worried about it. But with the big screen, they're very careful. I guess it wouldn't hurt me to look good for a change."

She looks very good. She has taken off several pounds and seems as pretty and perky as in her glamor day at MGM.

As soon as she finishes the film in midsummer, she takes off for New York to begin work on a stage musical, "Wildcat."

"It's the story of a gal who works in the oilfields in the 1900s," she said. "We'll open in New York around Thanksgiving. If it's a hit, I'll stay in it a year and a half. It's a rough role, with lots of rough stuff and singing and some dancing. I'm not worried that it will be too strenuous. I always wanted to be a stage actress and I never made it because I always had contract in Hollywood. Now I can realize my ambition."

Is all this work to fill the void left in her personal life?

"No," she replied. "I was all set to do the show before it happened; I had signed the contracts and enrolled the kids in school in New York. No, it's not a substitute. Nothing could substitute for what has been lost."

Liberty Ho'makers In Wednesday Meet

The Liberty Homakers Extension Club met Wednesday at the home of Mrs. John Brosh, with nine members and three children present.

The meeting was called to order by the president, Mrs. A. H. Tobben.

Roll call was answered with a picnic suggestion, and the "Club Collect" was repeated by all.

Mrs. Clyde May and Mrs. Catherine Zizerman read the business letter of the month.

Mrs. Paul Baum gave the first lesson on stain removal. Mrs. Dan P. Green Jr. led the group in playing games.

The July meeting will be held at Mrs. Zimmerschied's, Route 1.

Actress In Hospital

HOLLYWOOD (AP)—Actress Barbara Stanwyck is hospitalized with acute bronchitis and laryngitis. Her doctor ordered her into the hospital Thursday and said he'd keep her there five or six days because she has a past history of pneumonia.

Aid From National Guard

As a result of the fire at the Weather's Kort Apts. last Friday Sp-5 Bob Mitchner, 22, and his wife, Tommie, and daughter, Tammy, seven-months, lost the majority of their household possessions.

Mitchner was impressed with the concern which people showed after the fire, but he was particularly happy when 1st Lt. Lester Harrell, Jr., Det. Commander of the 35th Admin. Co., presented him with a check for nearly $150. The money was a gift from members of the 35th Administration Company and Command Section and the full time employees at the armory of the Missouri National Guard.

The presentation, shown above, was made Tuesday. Also helping were Mr. and Mrs. Weather, who have taken furniture from their own house to furnish Mitchner's new apartment at the court.

Mitchner said that his family has also received gifts from Sedalians whom he does not know. (Democrat-Capital Photo)

Cooper 'Feeling Fine'

HOLLYWOOD (AP)—"I'm feeling fine and all I need is some rest," Gary Cooper said as he left a hospital, where he underwent abdominal surgery 10 days ago.

Taken to his Los Angeles home Thursday by his wife, Veronica, the 58-year-old actor was in good spirits and laughed and joked with newsmen in a corridor.

Cooper said he plans to rest until September, when he will go to London to make "Last Train to Babylon."

Also attending from the Tipton Club was Leonard Gerke, who will begin his duty as president July 1.

Job Is Endless In Preserving Good Relations

NEW YORK (AP)—Prince Philip, in New York to open the 200-million-dollar British exhibition at the Coliseum today, says the people of both nations have a never-ending job to do in preserving friendly Anglo-American relations.

"This business is like a garden," said Prince Philip, duke of Edinburgh and husband of Queen Elizabeth II.

"Leave it to itself and weeds and confusion take over. We can only have the right understanding if we make a conscious and continuing effort to get it."

The prince commended the present good relations between the United States and Great Britain in speaking at a dinner sponsored jointly Thursday night by Pilgrims and the English-Speaking Union of the United States. The Waldorf-Astoria hotel dinner was attended by 1,400 members and guests of the two organizations, which are dedicated to fostering Anglo-American friendship.

It was announced that a workshop demonstration would be held June 22 at Anderson School.

Francis Owen led the group in games. Refreshments were served.

Disney Sets MacMurray In Wild Role

By BOB THOMAS
AP Movie-TV Writer

HOLLYWOOD (AP) — Having cavorted with a talking dog, Fred MacMurray is now flying a Model T and making basketball players leap 10 feet in the air.

If it had been any other studio besides Walt Disney's, there would be a "Shaggy Dog Talks Again." But Disney is dead set against doing sequels. He is following up his big hit of the talking pooch with "The Absent-Minded Professor," also starring Fred MacMurray.

"This is a wild one," the actor admitted.

Fred plays a screwy savant who tampers with the elements. One day in the lab he accidentally concocts a putty-like substance that induces weightlessness. He uses the stuff for all kinds of things, such as sending the school's basketball team to new heights and making his flivver airborne.

"The idea came up when we were making 'The Shaggy Dog,'" Fred said. "One day Walt came on the set and lurked in the background watching things, the way he likes to do. After a while, he told me he was thinking of another project for me.

"I didn't know Walt very well then. I went home and told my wife June about it, but added that I'd probably never hear about it again."

Fred has now learned that Disney never talks idly. He has also learned other things about the Disney operation.

"I found out he won't let gags interfere with the story, no matter how good they are," the actor said.

MacMurray flies right from the film into one of the most unusual TV deals in Hollywood history. He'll star in "My Three Sons" for ABC and make 39 films in three months.

Rooney Will Support Second Wife Monthly

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Mickey Rooney, whose wife No. 5 is actress Barbara Thomason, has agreed to pay $600 monthly in child support to wife No. 2, Betty Jane Rase Baker.
Mrs. Baker told Superior Court Wednesday that Rooney is $9,000 behind in payments for her two children by the actor, Mickey Jr., 14, and Timothy, 13.
But Rooney is still in trouble. He is due in court today on the complaint of wife No. 4, Elaine Mahnken Rooney Davis.
Wife No. 1 was actress Ava Gardner, and No. 3 was actress Martha Vickers.

Measure To Curb Payola

First Move To Clean Up Broadcasting

WASHINGTON (AP)—Congress took its first major step Thursday toward outlawing payola, quiz show rigging and other broadcasting abuses exposed by House investigators.

The House Commerce Committee approved a far-reaching bill providing criminal penalties of up to one year in prison and $10,000 fine for anyone convicted of being involved in payola or TV-radio contest-fixing.

The bill is a direct outgrowth of a series of hearings into quiz show scandals and undercover payoffs to disc jockeys to plug records on the air.

However, the committee rejected one major recommendation by its Legislative Oversight subcommittee, which conducted the inquiries.

That was a proposal to license TV and radio networks—a move bitterly opposed in the industry.

Rep. John B. Bennett (R-Mich.), senior GOP member of both the committee and the subcommittee, contended the omission seriously weakens efforts to eliminate irregularities uncovered in the probes.

Bennett, author of the licensing proposal, said he will make a new attempt to write it in when the bill reaches the House floor.

Committee Chairman Oren Harris (D-Ark.), himself a sponsor of legislation to license networks, said the licensing provision "didn't belong in the bill." He indicated the committee wouldn't act on this issue until next year "after full and complete hearings."

At present only individual stations are licensed and regulated by the FCC.

In addition to the payola and quiz show penalties, the bill contains provisions that would:

1. Authorize the Federal Communications Commission to suspend for up to 10 days the license of a TV or radio station that willfully violates federal law or FCC regulations. A violator also could be fined $1,000 for each day a violation occurred.

The objective is to give the FCC greater flexibility in policing the broadcasting industry. The commission's only present weapon is the power to revoke a license or refuse to renew it. But this is considered so drastic it hasn't been invoked in more than 20 years.

2. Authorize the FCC to issue conditional broadcast licenses for less than three years—the present standard.

3. Prohibit license application payoffs and swapoffs—industry terms for payoffs to a license applicant to withdraw in favor of a rival.

On Expense Account Charges

Moulder Defends Himself On Un-American Activities

By ROBERT E. HENNESSEE
Of Our Washington Bureau

WASHINGTON — Congressman Morgan M. Moulder (D-Mo.) defended himself and the House committee on un-American activities against charges of night clubbing at government expense and generally misusing the expense account.

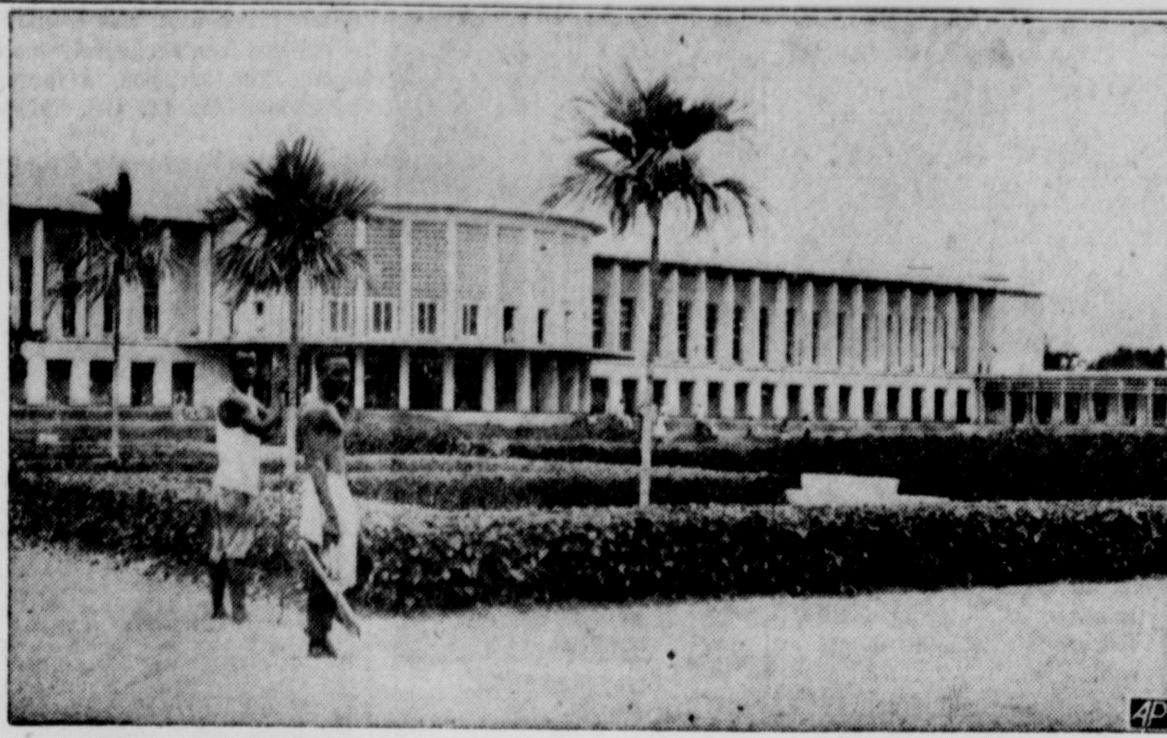

The charges, appearing in Knight newspapers and the Washington Post told of $100 a day hotel tabs turned in by Moulder and other members of the controversial committee.

After two reporters came across the expense statements of this and other congressional committees, House officials quickly locked up the room in which they are kept and said they could not be seen.

Moulder told the Democrat the newspaper reporters had their stories "already written" before they talked with him or other committee members.

His explanation of the high hotel tabs was that hotel bills presented him when he headed subcommittee investigations in various cities usually included meals for as many as a dozen persons and sometimes this situation existed for breakfast, lunch and dinner.

Often on his bill, Moulder said, were meals for three or four committee members, the committee clerk and attorney, three investi-

Not Effort to Collect Tax

Says Tax Law Was to Protect Contractors

JEFFERSON CITY (AP)—A spokesman for the Highway Commission said on Thursday a sales tax regulation was adopted 2 years ago as a protective device for Missouri road contractors.

Robert L. Hyder, the commission's chief attorney, was the principal witness before a special subcommittee of the House Appropriations Committee, seeking answers to questions raised recently by the St. Louis Post-Dispatch.

The newspaper story reported the Highway Commission formerly forced each contractor to accept a reduction of two per cent in payment for all materials he used on which he could not show he paid the state sales tax of two per cent.

Hyder said the rule, adopted in 1958, was not an effort by the Highway Commission to collect sales tax—which by law must go into the state general revenue fund and not to highway funds.

Instead, Hyder said, it was an assurance that an out of state contractor must bid on the same basis as a Missouri contractor who, presumably, would buy his materials in Missouri, subject to the state sales tax.

In other words, the out of state contractor would bid on the basis of $1.02 for each dollar's worth of materials needed. Then, Hyder said, if he showed the Missouri sales tax was paid he would be paid fully.

But if he could not show the Missouri tax was paid, his final payment would reflect payment of only a dollar for each dollar's worth of material.

It was an effort to recognize the old 1929 statute which required that Missouri contractors be given preference in state work, Hyder explained.

He denied the deduction in final payment could be considered a collection by the commission of a sales tax and converting the money to its own use.

Instead, it works this way, Hyder said: Upon completion of a highway job, the contractor must submit an affidavit showing the amount of materials used, whom they were purchased from and whether the Missouri sales tax was paid.

Any materials on which the tax was not paid to the original seller, Hyder told the committee, would be subject to the two per cent reduction.

Since last Aug. 29, the Highway Commission has not deducted the two per cent except on those contracts executed before that date, Hyder said.

The Post-Dispatch story said in the past 21 years more than a million dollars in deductions have been made but never turned over to the general revenue fund.

Earlier Chief Engineer Rex Whitton made public a letter to the editor of the Post-Dispatch in which he denied the commission allowed any contractors to violate bidding rules. The Post-Dispatch cited in one story the handling of an expressway contract there as being in conflict with departmental rules.

At the end of the 3½ hour session, the subcommittee set a closed session for 10 a.m., Friday, to map plans for future study. The committee asked Welborn to represent the attorney general's office at the executive session.

Glider Pilot Returned by East Germany

LUEBECK, Germany (AP)—An American glider pilot who was blown into East Germany during international competition was released by the Communists Thursday with a minimum of political fuss. He promptly headed back to the world gliding championships in West Germany.

Richard E. Schreder of Toledo, Ohio, who won the American soaring championship in 1958, was in Communist hands less than 24 hours.

He said he was treated well, except that he was not allowed to telephone his wife or gliding championship officials. He was allowed to bring his glider with him.

His wife, Angie, met him at the border near here and gave him a big kiss.

"I'm glad to be back," he said. "I had a good time but they wouldn't let me telephone."

Schreder, who is 44, started out Wednesday with a group of nearly 20 gliders on a distance flight from Butzeilerhof Airport near Cologne for Fehmarn Island in the Baltic Sea. The gliding contestants could choose any goal for the day, except that it had to be in West Germany.

Near the end of the flight he radioed a teammate, Richard H. Johnson of Arlington, Tex., that he was over water and had lost his way. For a short time it was feared he had crashed at sea. Ships in the area were alerted. Soon an East German coastal radio reported his safe landing.

Gliding championship officials contacted the flight division of the East German state sports organization to arrange Schreder's release.

A spokesman said it was put on a "sportsman to sportsman" basis to keep it from becoming a political issue.

The East Germans have in the past held captive stray U. S. military planes as a means of forcing negotiations and some degree of Western diplomatic recognition for their government. Sports planes and gliders, however, have generally been free from such pressure.

Witness Says Mrs. Jones Shook O'Day

Woman Died Soon After Shaking, Neighbor Testifies

KANSAS CITY (AP)—A witness testified Thursday Mrs. Odie O'Day, 80, died a few minutes after she was shaken by Mrs. Mary Frances Jones, 77-year-old Sedalia woman who was caring for her.

The testimony was given at a preliminary hearing for Mrs. Jones on a second degree murder charge. The hearing later was continued until next Thursday at the state's request to obtain additional testimony.

Mrs. Mary Krummel, a neighbor of Mrs. O'Day, told of an altercation and argument shortly before Mrs. O'Day's death. She said she walked into the room where Mrs. O'Day was seated on a bed and Mrs. Jones followed her.

"I told her she was making Mrs. O'Day very nervous and she began to shake Mrs. O'Day's shoulders," she said. "I tried to separate them and she (Mrs. Jones) knocked me against the bed. I threatened to hit her with a flower pot. I thought she was going for her throat."

She added she noticed Mrs. O'Day was gasping for breath and she began to massage the area over her heart. She said she told Mrs. Jones to get some water but the woman retorted, "No I will not get the water. Let her die."

The state contends the actions of Mrs. Jones caused Mrs. O'Day to have a fatal heart attack. A death certificate introduced at the hearing showed the woman died of an arteriosclerotic heart condition.

Dinner Is Too High For a Republican Invited by Mistake

Evidently due to a recent story in which R. M. (Dick) Battles, Republican candidate for lieutenant governor of Missouri, was referred to as a Democrat, he has been invited to a 50 or $100-a-plate Democratic dinner in Kansas City.

In a reply sent today to the treasurer Mr. Battles stated: "Received kind invitation to United Democratic Association 50 or $100 dinner. I am a Republican candidate for lieutenant governor. Does the invitation still hold good? Meal a little expensive for a Republican so I plan to bring a sack lunch."

Schreder, who is 44, started out Wednesday with a group of nearly 20 gliders on a distance flight from Butzeilerhof Airport near Cologne for Fehmarn Island in the Baltic Sea. The gliding contestants could choose any goal for the day, except that it had to be in West Germany.

Nixon Doesn't Expect Rocky To Be on Republican Ticket

GOP Leaders Repudiate Rockefeller

Ike Is Unruffled Over Suggested Lag In Defense Policies

WASHINGTON (AP)—The top leadership of the Republican party Thursday repudiated Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller's assault on Vice President Richard M. Nixon and Eisenhower administration policies.

But President Eisenhower was pictured as unruffled—and unconvinced—by the New York Republican governor's blunt suggestion that Eisenhower's defense policies have exposed the United States to danger.

Nixon appeared at a closed-door meeting of 45 state GOP chairmen, and one of them reported afterward that the vice president told the group he will stand on his public record compiled over the years. Ohio State Chairman Ray Bliss said Nixon was applauded enthusiastically.

Meanwhile, Rockefeller was on the receiving end of a pointed slap from Republican members of Congress from his own state. They overwhelmingly endorsed Nixon for the Republican presidential nomination. In New York, Rockefeller shrugged this off, saying, "Is there anything new about that?"

The Democrats, who have a habit of squabbling among themselves, stood on the sidelines and gleefully cheered the GOP on in its family fight.

"It looks like there is some life in the old elephant yet," quipped Senate Democratic Leader Lyndon B. Johnson of Texas, a contender for the nomination to lead his party against the Republicans in the presidential battle this fall.

After a White House meeting, Senate Republican Leader Everett M. Dirksen of Illinois told newsmen Rockefeller's criticism of Eisenhower administration defense policy "adds up to an unfortunate statement because it will register abroad."

House Republican Leader Charles A. Halleck of Indiana, who accompanied Dirksen to the meeting with Eisenhower, said the President still feels his defense program is adequate for the times.

Prodded by reporters for an account of Eisenhower's reaction to the Rockefeller blast, Dirksen said the President had taken "judicial notice" of it. He described Eisenhower as convinced a good job is being done by Pentagon chiefs and members of Congress concerned with national security.

In another part of the city, Republican National Chairman Thruston B. Morton told questioners he regarded the Rockefeller statement as an attack on the Eisenhower record.

Morton, a senator from Kentucky, acknowledged Rockefeller's right to make known his opinions. But the GOP party chairman said he is proud of the Eisenhower record, and that he believes most Republicans are, too.

As for the impact of Rockefeller's stand, Morton said he doesn't expect it will hurt the party, nor influence the outcome of the November elections one way or the other.

At the same time, however, Morton made plain he regards the Rockefeller move as killing whatever slight chance the governor might have to wrest the GOP presidential nomination from Nixon at this late date.

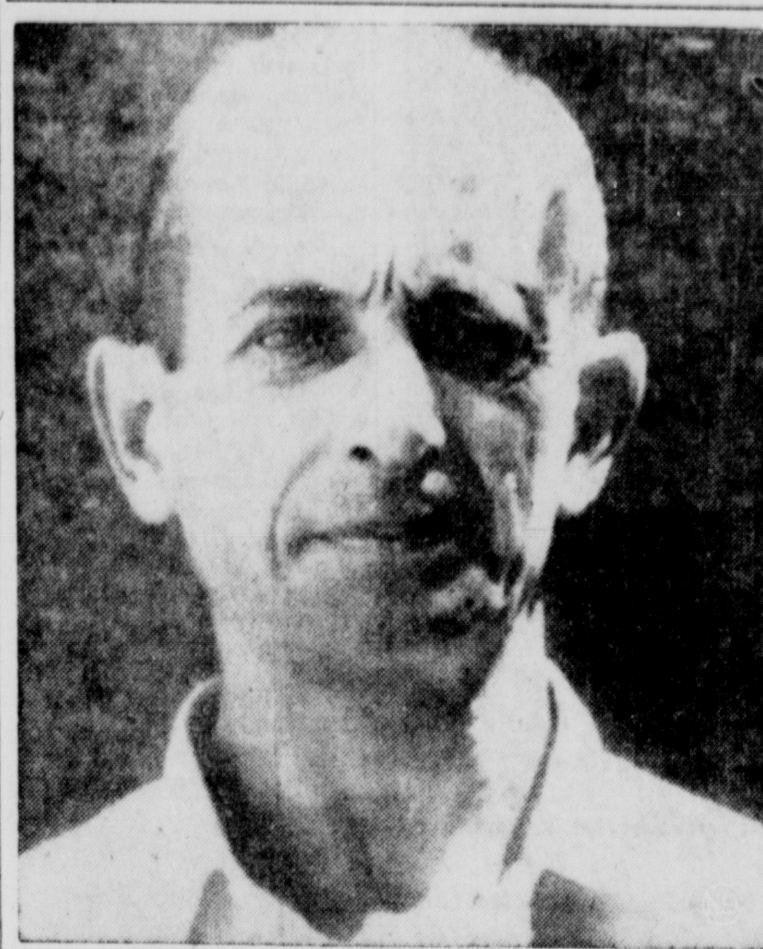

When a reporter wanted to know if he thought a Republican who had been so critical of the Eisenhower record could be nominated for president on the GOP ticket, Morton replied: "No, frankly I do not."

Carr Quits as Knob Noster City Clerk

B. E. Carr, Knob Noster city clerk for 10 years, announced his resignation Thursday afternoon, effective 60 days from this date.

Carr said that the time consumed by his post as city clerk did not leave him with enough time for his own business interests. He said the job did not pay enough to warrant his leaving the locker plant and appliance store he operates.

The office of city clerk has been in the Carr family for about 42 years. W. J. Carr, father of Bob Carr, held the office for 32 years, after which the younger Carr was elected to the post.

Halleck Named Chairman

Nixon Backers Win Convention Posts

WASHINGTON (AP)—Staunch backers of Vice President Richard M. Nixon won key positions Thursday for the Republican National Convention starting in Chicago July 25.

Chosen as permanent chairman was Rep. Charles A. Halleck of Indiana. The keynote will be Rep. Walter H. Judd of Minnesota, and the temporary chairman Gov. Cecil H. Underwood of West Virginia.

Their selection was made by an arrangements committee. They are subject to routine approval Friday by the Republican National Committee.

The arrangements group named Elizabeth E. Heffelfinger of Minnesota as convention secretary. It also ratified the earlier selection of Charles H. Percy, 40, of Chicago, as chairman of the platform committee and Rep. Melvin R. Laird, 38, of Wisconsin as vice chairman.

The 59-year-old Halleck is minority leader of the House and is serving his 13th term in Congress. He ousted Rep. Joseph W. Martin of Massachusetts as House GOP leader in January 1959, and succeeds to the chairmanship held by Martin at the last five GOP conventions.

While avowedly a neutral as far as selection of a presidential nominee is concerned, Halleck has been a Nixon supporter and had the backing of Nixon's House forces in his successful fight to oust Martin.

Halleck long has been "available" as a vice-presidential candidate.

Judd is 61 and is serving his ninth House term. A former medical missionary in China, he is considered a specialist on Far Eastern matters and has a wide reputation as a speaker. He has been a Nixon backer and has described Nixon as "captain of the new team."

The 37-year-old Underwood is a comparative newcomer to national politics. His selection as temporary chairman was expected to give a boost to his campaign for the Senate seat now held by Jennings Randolph, a Democrat.

Nixon will address an open session of the national committee Saturday morning.

He Praises Governor, But Disagrees

VP Says He Has Stated Views With Great Precision

CAMDEN, N. J. (AP)—Vice President Richard M. Nixon said Thursday he doesn't expect Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller of New York to be on the Republican ticket as the vice presidential candidate.

And, while he praised Rockefeller as a man of integrity, Nixon disagreed sharply with Rockefeller's contention that Nixon has not stated his position forcibly on public issues.

Asked by newsmen about accepting Rockefeller as a running mate, Nixon said:

"I can assure him that his oft repeated desire that he not be drafted as vice president certainly will be respected by me."

There was laughter at the crowded news conference—a conference Nixon called to answer Rockefeller's public challenge Wednesday to declare himself now on public issues.

"I have set forth with great precision and major detail my views on the issues more than any other of the candidates," Nixon said.

Nixon said, however, that he would be willing to discuss with Rockefeller all the issues in depth before television cameras.

"I'm sure it can be arranged," he added.

Nixon said that of all the presidential candidates he has stated his position in the greatest detail.

He said he had checked just before leaving Washington and found he has held 47 news conferences of one sort or another—"with no holds barred"—in the last five months.

"Over the past 14 years," Nixon said, "in the House and the Senate and the vice presidency I have entertained questions on every major issue."

Nixon's news conference Thursday was called to answer a statement put out by Rockefeller in New York Wednesday.

Rockefeller, without directly naming Nixon, asserted that the leading candidate for the GOP presidential nomination has failed to make his position clear on important issues.

3 More Damage Suits Against Springfield

SPRINGFIELD, Mo. (AP)—Three more damage suits were filed against the city Thursday by homeowners living near the new $3,000,000 disposal plant in the southwest part of the city.

The seven suits now on file seek a total of $320,000 in damages as the result of what the plaintiffs claim are noxious odors and residual film from the plant.

Turner White, an attorney for the plaintiffs, said more suits may be filed.

Whips Up Red China Coast

Typhoon Leaves Thousands Homeless and Scores Dead

HONG KONG (AP)—Typhoon Mary whipped up the coast of Communist China Thursday night leaving thousands homeless and scores dead, missing and injured in refugee-crowded Hong Kong.

Rescue workers digging into landslides and the debris of refugee shacks left in the wake of the 118-mile-an-hour typhoon, said the final death toll may never be known.

Police said 28 bodies have so far been recovered; 12 to 20 more people are feared dead; 30 others are missing; 26 are seriously injured and 17 more are in hospitals.

More than 4,200 homeless have been registered with local welfare organizations, but rescue workers said several thousand others—unregistered fishermen and refugees—probably lost their home. Property damage was expected to run into millions of dollars.

Worst hit were about 300,000 refugees who live in the tin and tarpaper shacks that cling precariously to the rocky hillsides of Hong Kong.

The typhoon, which roared through Hong Kong early Thursday is described as the worst disaster to hit this British colony since the 1937 typhoon which tossed ocean liners on the beach.

Typhoon Mary dropped about 16 inches of rain in Hong Kong, causing floods both here and in the neighboring Portuguese colony of Macao. The storm also touched the southern tip of Formosa but no damage was reported there.

About 80 freighters and liners, including the American liner President Cleveland, rode out the typhoon at emergency anchorages on the lee side of the protecting islands.

The 3,500-ton Sheng Lee was driven onto a reef 160 miles southeast of Hong Kong and reported breaking up. Three Dutch ships and Nationalist Chinese planes and ships went to the rescue.

The Royal Observatory said Mary hit the Chinese mainland on a 300-mile front, moving north-northeastward in the direction of Canton. Peiping has not reported its mailand progress.

Lt. Col. Edward H. Dey

'Enlisted Man's Officer,' Title for Sedalia Man

Earlier this month in Hawaii, an unusual parade took place. Unusual, because it was a parade of enlisted men exclusively—no officers! The occasion, a farewell testimonial for Lt. Col. Edward

Edward H. Dey

H. Dey of Sedalia, known as "the enlisted man's officer," who with his family was leaving his post in Hawaii to come back to the States for further assignment at Fort Bragg, N.C.

Col. Dey had often told his men that an enlisted man can go from a private to any high office if he is willing to work. He himself had proved it, having gone from the grade of private to Lt. Col. from 1940 to 1958, through hard work.

However, the enlisted men's parade was not the only honor he received prior to his departure. Gen. J. E. Theimer, commanding officer of the 25th Division, presented Col. Dey with a certificate of achievement for his work on the island from April 1957 to May 1960. Not only was the man from "Show-me" Missouri recognized by his men, but also by his superior officers.

Dey graduated from Smith-Cotton High School in 1935, enlisted in the National Guard in 1940 and was sent to Fort Jackson, S.C. While there H. O. Berry of Sedalia was his battery commander. In 1940 he married Dorothy Rhodes of Sedalia. They have nine children: Bill, 18, and Sharon Ann, 17, born here; Michael, 14, Danny, 5, and John, 4, born in Fort Sill, Okla.; Janet Ann, 8, born in Fort Bragg, N.C.; Mary Kay, 12, and Dorothy Helen, 10, born in Nurnburg, Germany, and Tommy, 2, born in Hawaii.

Mr. and Mrs. Morris Appleman, West Los Angeles, Calif., announce the engagement of their daughter, Elaine Ruth, to Mr. Jack Jerome Isgur, Sedalia, son of Mr. and Mrs. Louis Isgur. Miss Appleman is a graduate of Stephens College. Mr. Isgur graduated from the University of Missouri Law School. A July 17 wedding is planned.

Twelfth Annual Rose Show Will Be Held Here June 4

The 12th annual Rose Show sponsored by the Sedalia Rose Society will be held in the Cafeteria of the Sacred Heart School, Saturday, June 4. Entries may be made from 8 a.m. to 10:30 a.m. Judging will begin at 11 a.m., and the show will be open to the public at 1:30 p.m. and will close at 9 p.m.

The exhibits will be arranged in two divisions: a horticultural division providing 60 classes according to variety, color and type of rose; and an artistic division of 16 classes of arrangement using the theme "Queen of the Prairie."

Awards of blue, red, and yellow ribbons will be made in all classes where quality warrants. Gold, silver and bronze medal certificates from the American Rose Society will be awarded the first, second, and third best specimens of Hybrid Teas and Floribundas chosen from the Blue Ribbon winners of the horticulture classes. A tri-color ribbon will be awarded to the best artistic arrangement. The Sedalia Rose Society "Perpetual Trophy" will be awarded to those members of the society winning the greatest number of points in the two divisions.

Schedules giving complete information on specimen and arrangement classes have been prepared and may be obtained from any of the following Show Committee Chairmen: General Chairman, Oscar DeWolf; Schedule, Mrs. Perry Strole; Staging, Edward Brummet; Entries, Mrs. Leland Hoback; Arrangement Classification, Mrs. Wilford Acker; Hospitality, Mrs. Edward Brummet; Judges, Mr. and Mrs. LeRoy Hodges; Publicity, Lindsay Edwards.

All rose growers in Sedalia and surrounding territory are urged to enter both specimens and arrangements in the show. The Society emphasized the fact that its members do not consider themselves professionals, or more expert in growing roses than the average rose grower; hence non-members should have no fear of competing with members. Anyone having a good rose should bring it to the show. It will make the show better and it may win a ribbon.

To prepare the cut roses properly for exhibiting, the following advice is offered by the society, as roses grown to perfection can be ruined easily by improper handling prior to showing.

Blooms cut in the late afternoon, about 5 o'clock, keep longer than those cut in the early morning. This is due apparently to the fact that the leaves and stems contain more carbohydrates (sugar, starch, etc.) in the afternoon than the forenoon. It may not always be possible to do this because some varieties open rapidly, and blooms that open in the morning may be too far advanced for afternoon.

The bloom should be full of water, so that it should be cut eight or ten hours before exhibiting and put in water to have the right amount. The water is absorbed through the cut surface at the end of the stem. The leaves on the lower part of the stem should be removed, since they decay in water and promote bacteria.

If the blooms are kept in water at basement temperature for more than eight hours prior to showing, it is advisable to cut an inch or so off the stems every 12 hours. However, if the blooms are kept in the refrigerator at 40 degrees F., or below after cutting, such practice is not necessary. Refrigeration is the most effective method of prolonging the life of the bloom after it is cut. This way it is possible to save the blooms that otherwise would be past by show time. The length of storage under refrigeration varies. Some varieties keep well for three days. If kept longer they usually open very rapidly. The temperature should not be more than 40 degrees nor less than 33 degrees.

To groom the rose for showing the foliage should be cleaned and the damaged outer or unwanted petals removed. All dirt, and fungicide or insecticide residues, should be wiped off gently with a soft cloth. A piece of old nylon hose is ideal for this purpose. This will also bring out the natural luster of the leaf, giving it a high gloss.

It is best to remove the damaged petals of those too far open at the show after the flowers are arranged in vases, for these petals will protect the flowers in transit. Members of the Sedalia Rose Society will be glad to give information on exhibiting at the show. Leland Hoback is president of the Society.

Big Crowd Expected

June Dairy Night Program At City Park Friday Night

By Merle Vaughan

Final detailed plans for June Dairy Night were made at a meeting of committees at Liberty Park Thursday night. June Dairy Night, a celebration initiating June Dairy Month, is to be held at Liberty Park Friday night, June 3. It will be held rain or shine.

The program includes Leroy Van Dyke, television star of Jubilee USA, the Comets, a group of local youngsters, a dairy cow judging contest, and a 15-cent ice cream social. At eight o'clock June Dairy Month will be declared officially open, there will be a report on the American Dairy Association and the crowd will be officially welcomed to Sedalia by William C. Hopkins, president of the Sedalia Chamber of Commerce.

The Cow Judging Contest is scheduled for 7. There will be one class of cows. In addition to placing the cows, each contestant will be asked to rank the cows on the basis of the estimated milk production during the last year.

Jimmy Glenn of radio station KDRO will be master of ceremonies. He will present Leroy Van Dyke as soon as the cow judging contest is over which will be around 7:30. Leroy will play until 8 when the speaking part of the program will occur.

Milo Homan is local county chairman of June Dairy Month and in his remarks will officially open June Dairy Month in Pettis County. Earl Wood, vice-chairman of District 4 of the American Dairy Association, will be on the program to say a few words about the accomplishments of the American Dairy Association in the past 20 years of their existence.

Mr. Hopkins will welcome the crowd to Sedalia, and extend to them the greetings from the Sedalia Chamber of Commerce. Following these remarks, Van Dyke will again take over and sing and play throughout the rest of the evening.

One of the features of June Dairy Night program has always been the standard servings of ice cream and cake at reduced prices to encourage folks to use more dairy products. As in the past, cakes are being furnished by dairymen's wives and local ice cream processors are furnishing ice cream at reduced rates.

Cakes have already been received from 42 dairy wives promising 84 cakes for the social. At least 150 cakes are expected with 169 delivered two years ago.

Committees have been set up to receive the cakes at Convention Hall from 12 noon until evening. Dairy wives who have been asked to work in receiving the cakes include: Mrs. Walter Banning, Mrs. Robert Welliver, Mrs. Henry Alt, Mrs. Roland Oelrichs, Mrs. Walter Kraft, Mrs. John Tevis, Mrs. Paul Gottschalk, Mrs. Clarence Wells, Mrs. John Bluhm Jr., Mrs. Dick Kirschner, Mrs. Raymond Cordes, Mrs. Walter McClure Jr., Mrs. Clayton Stephens, Mrs. C. L. Turner, Mrs. Earnest Schlobohm, Mrs. Leonard McClure, Mrs. Harry Runge, Mrs. John Fitzgerald, Mrs. Robert Longan, Mrs. Rudy Rehmer, Mrs. Tommy Klein, Mrs. Lawrence Funk and Mrs. Harold Alcorn.

Chairmen of the Cake Receiving Committee and of the Cutting Committee were announced last week. Those to assist in cutting include Mrs. Roy Petty, Mrs. Elmer Mewes, Mrs. Elmer Rhine, Mrs. Sam Freund, Mrs. Albert Tucker, Mrs. William Ficken, Mrs. Raymond Askew, Mrs. Shelton Smith, Mrs. Lee Dow, Mrs. Elwood Payne, Mrs. Harry Ream, and Mrs. William McCune.

Those serving from 7:30 p.m. to 8:45 p.m. include Donald Welliver, Bill Ball, Robert Mewes, Betty Welliver, Pamela Long, Glenda Teter, Joan Arnold, Florence Arnold, Jeanette Rugen and Catherine Arnold.

Those serving from 8:45 p.m. to 10 p.m. include Mary Mergen, John Mergen, Wayne Linhardt, Roy Chappell, Larry Bob Lewis, Joyce Clark, Janice Clark, Linda Callis, John Lowell Fitzgerald, and Betty Lou Powell.

Mrs. Earl Wood is serving as Co-Chairman on the serving committee and that committee will be assisted by a number of 4-H youngsters. 4-H's serving from 6:15 p.m. to 7:30 p.m. include Mary Ruth Edwards, Mary Donna Moore, Bill Meredith, Larry Meredith, Jim Wheatley, Margaret Bohon, Sharon Fischer, John Bohon, Ann Johnson and Kay Anderson.

Nine youngsters have been assigned to the part of carrying cakes from the truck to the cutting table. They include Kim Dabner, Jerry Smith, Edmond Shipley, Jerry Meyer, Charles Bulteimer, Duane Snow, Jim Martin, Robert DeBord and Harold Bruening.

An additional group of youngsters have been asked to help with the cow judging contest. They are: Marilyn Smiley, Kay Wilson, Ruth Ann Wood, Mary Lee Blackburn, Tommy Reid, Robert Gregory and Jimmy Wood.

Sam Boyle, Director of Farm Marketing for the Sedalia Chamber of Commerce and working with Mrs. Vivian Warren of the Chamber Office have lined up 18 men to assist in dipping ice cream during the ice cream social. Mr. Boyle will assign workers to the three different dipping lines and will fill in himself when necessary.

Those working from 6:30 to 7:30 p.m. include: Dr. Dave Robinson, C. H. Joy, W. P. Root, E. Glenn Lewis, Carl Yates Jr., and George Ray.

The 7:30 to 8:30 p.m. section includes: Maurice Hogan, Omer West, John Harvey Jr., P. Cecil Owen, Harry Wahrenbrock and Everett Stevenson. While the 8:30 to 9:30 p.m. section includes: E. Cook, Cliff Barr, Virgil Herrick, Bruce Claycomb, Fred Kari and William Hopkins.

A clean up squad from the Chamber of Commerce will come on at 9:30 p.m. to assist two former members, Earnest Schlobohm and W. J. Ficken. The Chamber Members assisting include: George Dugan, Sr., Jack Cunningham, Earl Thomas, and James Harvey.

The ice cream social will start at 6:30 p.m. and serving will continue until 9:45 p.m. In case of rain it will be held in Convention Hall.

Red Cross Swim Program Is Set For Park Pools

Plans for the Red Cross swimming program at Liberty Park and Hubbard Park Pools have been announced by Henry Sutton, chairman of water safety. Benny Walter will be in charge of the program at Liberty Park and Harry Browder at Hubbard.

Enrollment cards have been distributed through the schools and are available at the Red Cross Office, 112 West Fourth Street. Enrollment for Hubbard closes May 27 and June 15 for Liberty Park. A child must be eight years old, or have completed the second grade, in order to enroll. All other age groups are eligible.

Classes will start June 7 at Hubbard and will be held Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday from 5:30 p.m. to 6:30 p.m. for six weeks.

There will be two periods at Liberty Park, the first from June 21 through July 8, and the second from July 12 through July 29. Classes will be held Tuesday, Thursday and Friday mornings.

There is no charge for Red Cross instruction, but there will be a pool fee of 15 cents for each session, unless the swimmer has a season ticket, at Liberty Park. The pool fee at Hubbard will be 75 cents unless the swimmer has a season ticket.

McCory Twirlers Graduate Thursday

The McCory Twirlers held graduation exercises for the square dance class sponsored by them and taught by Ray McCory, Thursday night, May 19, on the platform at Liberty Park. Ray McCory was the principal caller for the dance with Kenneth Manns and Johnnie Loague each calling a tip. The committee for the dance was Kenneth and Isobel Janice and Joe Walter and Norman and Doris Thiele.

A basket dinner furnished by the club for the graduates was held preceding the dance with the committee in charge.

As a test the class was called upon to perform in two fun squares. This was their final examination and all passed with flying colors. They then formed a line and marched onto the platform and were presented their diplomas by the teacher, Ray McCory. The class then presented him with a gift of their appreciation.

Members of the graduating class are as follows:

Wayne and Frankie Biggs; Raymond and Lelia Boss; George and Dorene Kline; Dick and Mimi Kraus; Bob and Gladys Martin; Jewel and Helen Meyers; Bob and Margie Nease; Loy and Virginia Russell; Dick and Kathy Smith; Kenneth and Mona Smith; Clyde and Alice Upton; Bob and Joann Yancey; and Harry and Geraldine Young.

The next dance will be on the platform at Liberty Park on June 1 at 8 p.m.

Hires Youth to Kill His Wife; Plot Fails

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Police say a young husband admits he hired a youth to kill his estranged wife—because he didn't want to pay her child support payments. The plot failed.

Both were arrested Wednesday and booked on suspicion of conspiracy to commit murder.

Police said Collins J. Williams, 21, hired Larry E. Butler, 18, for $400 to kill Linda Williams, mother of his son.

A motel manager reported Butler to police because he thought his girl companion was underage. Police arrested Butler and a 14-year-old runaway girl, and in his room found a letter describing the plot.

VALEDICTORIAN — Joni C. Miller, daughter of Mrs. Violet Miller, Ottumwa, received the valedictorian award of the senior class of Ottumwa High School at the Commencement exercise Monday evening, May 20. She received the Oddfellow and Rebekah Scholarship of $100 and a Curator's Award from the University of Missouri, where she will attend this summer. Miss Miller also received the awards of the outstanding typist and the outstanding girl athlete of the year.

Ann Mendenhall Gets WA Title Of Girls Order

Ann Mendenhall was installed as Worthy Advisor of the Knob Noster Assembly Order of Rainbow for Girls, at installation services in the Masonic Hall Friday evening.

Installing officers were, Mrs. Merle A. Matthews, Donna Sauls, Mrs. Jack Thomas, Miss Sharon Wing and Miss Mary Hogan.

Other elective officers installed were: Worthy Associate Advisor, Louise Oldfather; Charity, Sharon Draper; Hope, Nancy Rhinehart, and Faith, Alice Rivera.

The appointive officers installed were: Chaplain, Scherry Poore; drill leader, Janice Schemp; Love, Judy Wharton; Religion, Sally Ann Price; Nature, Joan Orr; Immortality, Edith Ingersoll; Fidelity, Mona Phillips; Patriotism, Cindy Henson; Service, Madeline Hatcher; confidential observer, Sarah Jane Neitzert; outer observer, Carol Reed; musician, Sheila Phillips, and choir director, Gisela Williams.

Elsie Mae Zink is page to the worthy advisor. Miss Mendenhall announced her term of office is dedicated to "Faith," her flower is the carnation, her colors, blue and white, and her Scripture is Matthew 17:20.

Miss Mendenhall's small cousin, Debbie Rhodes, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles S. Rhodes, carried the crown on a white satin pillow and Mrs. Matthews placed it on Miss Mendenhall's head. Miss Mendenhall introduced her mother, Mrs. Florence Mendenhall, and presented her a corsage. She also introduced other relatives. She presented gifts to the installing officers.

Charles Covey, the Rainbow Dad, presented her a bouquet of white carnations. Mr. Covey gave corsages to the associate worthy advisor, charity, faith, hope, the drill instructor and the past advisor, Miss Sharon Jageman, a past advisor pin, a gift from the assembly, gifts to the worthy advisor and the mother advisor, Mrs. Jack Thomas.

Following the installation refreshments were served.

Knob Noster Holds Baccalaureate May 15

The baccalaureate service for the Knob Noster High School graduates was held in the high school auditorium Sunday evening May 15.

Elder Paul Burgess was the speaker. His subject, "Remember Now Thy Creator in the Days of Thy Youth," Mr. Burgess is pastor of the Reorganized Church of Jesus Christ of Latter Day Saints.

Baskets of iris and spirea decorated the platform.

There were 34 members of the class wearing blue caps and gowns entering as Mrs. Opal Williams played "Pomp and Circumstance."

Carol Moss and Derral Warner, juniors, escorted the graduates to their seats.

Several numbers were sung by the different groups.

Class sponsors are Mrs. R. M. Scott, Charles F. Niess and Boyd Eversole.

Pumphrey Will Attend Insurance Meeting

Donald R. Pumphrey, a representative of the Aetna Life Insurance Company office in Sedalia, will attend the 32nd annual meeting of the Corps of Regionnaires at the Broadmoor Hotel, Colorado Springs, Colo., June 15-18.

Mr. Pumphrey, who has been associated with Aetna Life for three years, was named to the national honorary organization in recognition of his outstanding record in the life insurance field during the past year. This marks the third time he has won membership in the Regionnaires.

At William Jewell College

Two Smith-Cotton Students To Attend Girls' State

Two 17 year old girls, juniors in Smith-Cotton High School, have been chosen to attend Girls State held at William Jewell College, Fulton, June 19 to 26. They are Peggy Alexander, who has been selected by the American Legion Auxiliary, Post 16 and Donna Nave, sponsored by the Business and Professional Women's Club.

Peggy is the daughter of Dr. and Mrs. James Charles Alexander, 1016 West Broadway. She is a member of the National Honor Society, Spiz Club, Latin Club and the Future Homemakers Club and has been first soprano in the Sophomore and Junior sextets.

During the present school year, she has served as reporter for the Future Homemakers and has been elected secretary for next year. For the past two years Peggy has been selected by the State Department of Education to represent Smith-Cotton in the State Chorus at Jefferson City. She recently has been elected recreation leader for Region 15, Missouri Association Future Homemakers of America.

This year Peggy is assistant editor of the Archives, Smith-Cotton's high school annual and next year will be editor-in-chief. In preparation for her duties as editor, she will spend a week in June in Kansas State University, Manhattan, Kans., attending the High School Publications Workshop.

Peggy is a member of the Calvary Episcopal Church, where she sings in the choir.

Donna is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Jewell Nave, 1625 West 16th. She is a member of the National Honor Society, Latin Club and Spiz Club. She is also a member of the orchestra, Sedalia Symphony, playing the violin, and a member of the Junior Girl's Glee Club, singing first soprano. As accompanist of the mixed chorus she takes part in the many programs given at meetings of civic organizations.

Last year Donna attended the All State Orchestra and Chorus Music Camp held at the University of Missouri and plans to attend again this year.

Donna is a member of the Wesley Methodist Church, where she is organist. In July she plans to attend the South Central Regional Institute of Church Music, at Mt. Sequoyah, Fayetteville, Ark., where she will take instruction in church music, both organ and vocal.

The American Legion Auxiliary sponsors Girls State which was organized as a national Americanism activity by the 1937 National Convention and the program is directed by a national committee. Holding of the first Girls Nation, with representatives from each Girls State, was authorized for 1947 to be held in Washington, D. C. It is the practical application of Americanism and good citizenship and the entire program is a non-partisan, non-political attempt to teach and inculcate in the youth of America a love of God and country.

Qualification taken into account is that the girl must be a junior in high school, and have such qualities as leadership, scholarship, character, courage, honesty, cooperativeness and physical fitness. The high school faculty assists in the selection by providing a list of eligible students.

The girls are then chosen from the list by the organizations sponsoring them. Mrs. Linden Lee Jones, president of the local unit, No. 16, American Legion, and Miss Georgia Giokaris, chairman of the Girls State committee of the Business and Professional Women's Club, have announced the names of the girls selected from the list of girls recommended.

Receiving three E's were Peggy Alexander, Bonnie Cole, Linda Cook, Scarlett Cooper, Sharon Deck, Dale Diefenbach, Toni Giger, C. B. Hagar, Martha Heimsoth, Carol Homan, Judy Kreisel, Pamela Long, Karen Rohrbach, Doug Shoemaker, Rick Strickert, Gloria Sturmfels, Kerry Taylor, Alice Vogel, Judy Weseloh and Jon Waller.

Forty-seven others received two E grades; 127 earned one E. Approximately 16 per cent of the 1960 students enrolled at the close of school received at least one E. This shows a steady decline through the year, with about 20 per cent the first quarter, 18 per cent the second, and 16 per cent the third and fourth quarters. Also interesting is that only 354 E's were given, out of a hypothetical 5,220 grades (based on four grades per student, although some students carry five subjects).

Planned Traffic Accident Ring Member Guilty

FREDERICKTOWN, Mo. (AP) — A member of a ring that allegedly collected $50,000 in planned traffic accidents has been sentenced to three years in prison.

Bernard Overstreet, 20, of Memphis, Tenn., was convicted Wednesday night by a Circuit Court jury of attempting to obtain money by false pretenses.

St. Francois County Prosecutor Raymond R. Roberts said the ring operated in this manner:

Overstreet or another member of the gang would drive along a highway until they spotted a tractor-trailer truck. They would pass the truck and slam on the brakes, causing the truck to crash into the rear of the car.

The case in which Overstreet was convicted was based on a collision July 21 on U. S. highway 67, 12 miles south of Fredericktown. In the car were Overstreet, Joseph Overstreet, Bernard's uncle, and Betty Overstreet, Joseph's wife.

Bernard Overstreet claimed he was injured and contended the truck driver was to blame.

But a doctor testified there was no "objective finding" of an injury. And truck driver Courtney Ray Harris testified that Joseph Overstreet, the driver of the car, braked so suddenly he could not avoid hitting the car.

The prosecution presented a dozen similar cases which occurred in the midwest and south. Prosecutor Roberts estimated the ring had collected at least $50,000 in them.

Betty Overstreet recently completed a three-month jail sentence for swearing to a false affidavit in connection with the accident.

Joseph Overstreet is awaiting trial on charges of attempting to obtain money by false pretenses and felonious assault.

In particular I would like to thank the entire Smith-Cotton Publicity Staff — Mark Shelby, Julie Cannon, Stan Jones, Don Hausam, Larry Chastain, and Bill Hurt — our photographer, Gunhan Danisman, and our sponsor, Mr. Donald L. Parman, all of whom have worked together to give what we believe to be the best student coverage of school news that Smith-Cotton has ever had.

At this point I would like to thank all those who have helped in my securing material for this column, and the Sedalia Democrat-Capital Newspapers for their cooperation.

Lions See Film Of Card Games, Hear Speaker

A motion picture of several games played by the St. Louis Cardinals football team during the 1959 season was shown at the Wednesday Lions meeting.

Brettschneider, line backer of the Cards, was the principal speaker and told of the coming season for the St. Louis team.

Tiny McKinnon, a lineman on the team who tips the scales well over the 300 mark, was in charge of handling the motion picture machine. The picture was obtained through Falstaff, one of the sponsoring organizations of the Cards.

Brettschneider was introduced by Neil Chapman, program chairman for the meeting.

A. B. Warren, president of the Blind Opportunities for Missouri Blind, whose group met in conjunction with the state convention of Missouri Lions in St. Louis this week, gave a report on the functions of the organization. Warren also reported on the newly organized program of Eye Tissue Bank which is sponsored by the Missouri Lions in cooperation with the University of Missouri Medical Center. A more detailed report on this activity will be given in a program before the Lions Club in the near future.

President Bill Hiatt also gave a short report as did E. B. Smith, who was named cabinet secretary of District 26-G.

Guests at the meeting were Earl Sammons of Neil Chapman; Bill Meyers, Columbia, of Everett Stevenson; McKinnon of St. Louis, of Ray Bruckner.

Bill McIntyre, Ottumwa, a former professional wrestler, is to speak before the Lions next week.

Ken Buchholz is program chairman for this meeting.

Nixon has a stranglehold on the nomination at this time, also in his statement criticized the Eisenhower administration's handling of foreign policy and some important domestic issues.

The top leadership of the Republican party, however, Thursday repudiated Rockefeller's assault on the vice president and the administration.

Nixon, Rockefeller had contended, was waiting until after winning the GOP nomination in Chicago this July before making his position known. "The path of great leadership," Rockefeller said, "does not lie along the top of a fence."

Nixon Thursday was all sweetness and light toward Rockefeller. He said he did not agree with his colleagues that Rockefeller should not have spoken out in criticism of the Eisenhower administration.

"I have always respected him," Nixon said of the New York governor, "as a man of integrity."

Nixon said he was confident Rockefeller made his statement because he feels such criticism is justified.

But Nixon was emphatic in his belief that Rockefeller had misrepresented the vice president's position.

He said he had studied the 10 points brought up by Rockefeller and that: "On each of these I have discussed them in more detail and more precisely than did the governor."

So gentle was Nixon with Rockefeller that he hastily pointed out that perhaps the governor had gone into greater detail on other occasions but he was referring, he said, only to the statement.

He gave an example of his stand on some of the issues brought up by Rockefeller.

He said Rockefeller is for compulsory arbitration in labor disputes vitally affecting the country.

"I am against it," Nixon said. "Where it has been tried it has not worked satisfactorily," he added.

Rolla Firm Low Bid On Fort Wood Project

KANSAS CITY (AP)—The McGinn Electric Corp., Rolla, Mo., was the apparently low bidder Thursday for installation of underground telephone facilities at Capehart Housing site No. 2 at Ft. Leonard Wood.

The firm bid $58,674. The government's estimate was $67,165. There were 10 other bidders.

Land Change Okayed

WASHINGTON (AP)—A proposal to transfer 50 acres of Rosecrans Memorial Airport, St. Joseph, Mo., from the Army to the Air Force, and dispose of the remaining 82 acres has been approved by a House armed services subcommittee.

The property that is retained would be used by the Missouri Air National Guard.

Most Grains Score Additional Small Gain

CHICAGO (AP)—A little more confidence was apparent in the grain futures market Thursday and most contracts scored additional small gains.

Wheat, oats and rye attracted moderate buying and closed in a steady to firm range while corn and soybeans ended slightly easier after having been down major fractions in spots during earlier dealings.

Wheat was $\frac{1}{4}$ -cent a bushel higher at the close, July 1.85 $\frac{1}{4}$ - $\frac{1}{4}$; corn unchanged to $\frac{1}{4}$ lower, July 1.19 $\frac{1}{4}$ - $\frac{1}{4}$; oats $\frac{1}{4}$ - $\frac{1}{4}$ higher, July 70 $\frac{1}{4}$; rye unchanged to $\frac{1}{4}$ higher, July 1.21 $\frac{1}{4}$ - $\frac{1}{4}$; soybeans $\frac{1}{4}$ - $\frac{1}{4}$ lower, July 12.12 $\frac{1}{4}$ - $\frac{1}{4}$.

Justifiable Homicide Verdict Is Returned

ST. LOUIS (AP)—A coroner's jury Thursday returned a verdict of justifiable homicide in the death of William Galloway, a Negro who was shot to death by a St. Louis police officer Tuesday.

Patrolman James McCarthy stopped Galloway, 24, and Otto Gordon, 54 after their auto struck a barrier in the Mill Creek Valley redevelopment area.

McCarthy reported he ordered the men to put their hands on top of the police car while he searched them. He said Galloway turned toward him with an open knife in his hand.

McCarthy fired once striking Galloway in the neck.

Gordon testified he and Galloway had their hands on the police car when he heard the shot. He said McCarthy showed him an open knife and said "I have a family to protect."

McCarthy declined to testify on advice of counsel.

Defendant a Paranoid Says Defense Attorney

ST. LOUIS (AP)—A court-appointed psychiatrist, testifying for the defense in the first degree murder trial of Sam Iaconetti, said Iaconetti did not know right from wrong when he shot W. Victor Weir—and still doesn't.

Dr. Thomas T. Flynn said the 49-year-old restaurant operator is a paranoid, suffers from a split personality and is apt to get worse rather than better.

Iaconetti, who operated the Variety Club in suburban University City, shot and killed Weir, president of the St. Louis County Water Co., in November of last year. The slaying took place in Weir's office in front of several witnesses as they discussed the impending mortgage foreclosure by the water company on the building in which the bar-restaurant was located.

Iaconetti's first trial ended in a mistrial late in March.
